SAMPSON COUNTY PARTNERS WITH OFFICE OF STATE FIRE MARSHAL AND LOCAL VOLUNTEERS TO INSTALL FREE FIRE ALARMS ON OCTOBER 4 PROJECT W.A.S.P: Working Alarms Save & Protect

CLINTON – Sampson County Office of Emergency Management/Fire Marshal is pleased to join the Office of State Fire Marshal, state and national organizations and nearly 200 local volunteers to provide working smoke alarms and fire safety education to residents of Sampson County in an event tagged PROJECT W.A.S.P (Working Alarms Save & Protect). The initiative is a response to a tragic home fire in August in which six Garland residents perished; investigators later determined that the home had no working smoke alarms.

On Saturday, October 4, teams from the County's 17 fire departments, along with volunteers from the North Carolina Baptist Aging Ministry, North Carolina Baptist Men, American Red Cross, Murphy-Brown, the Sampson County Fire Marshal's Office, the Sampson County Fireman's Association, and Nationwide Insurance Company will gather at Grove Park Baptist Church for training and then spread out to canvass neighborhoods in Sampson County to teach citizens about fire safety and properly install working fire alarms. More than 1200 ten-year alarms have been provided by OSFM and Kidde United Technologies for the program. "We are grateful for the partnership and generosity of these organizations in our efforts to protect our citizens from dangerous, and far too often tragic, home fires," stated Sampson County Fire Marshal Jerry Cashwell. He also commended the county's fire departments for their work to prepare for the initiative. "Realizing a one-day event could not reach all of the county, our departments have worked diligently to pre-determine 'at-risk' residential neighborhoods in their respective communities as our focus during the October 4th door-to-door canvass and installation." Officials note that they will continue work with OSFM and Kidde beyond this oneday campaign to identify and fulfill needs throughout the county and continue essential fire safety education.

The day will also serve as a valuable training exercise for the County's local emergency responders as the event will provide them practice in working from a predetermined incident action plan, integrating volunteers from multiple agencies, and utilizing portions of the County's emergency operations plan to coordinate the event. "We will basically approach this smoke detector installation campaign in a systematic manner very similar to that which would be used for responding to a hurricane or similar event that would impact the county," explained Cashwell. In addition to Emergency Management staff, the following fire departments will participate in some manner in the training and Project W.A.S.P.: Autryville Fire Dept., Clement Volunteer Fire Dept., Clinton Fire Dept., Faison Volunteer Fire Dept., Garland Volunteer Fire Dept., Godwin Falcon Volunteer Fire Dept., Halls Volunteer Fire Dept., Piney Grove Volunteer Fire Dept., Plain View Volunteer Fire Dept., Roseboro Volunteer Fire Dept., Salemburg Volunteer Fire Dept., Spivey's Corner Volunteer Fire Dept., Taylor's Bridge Volunteer Fire Dept., Turkey Volunteer Fire Dept., and Vann Crossroads Volunteer Fire Dept.

Members of the media covering the event should meet at Grove Park Baptist Church, 609 Northeast Blvd, in Clinton at 9:00 a.m. on October 4. The County's Emergency Operation Center at 107 Underwood Street, Clinton will activate following initial volunteer training and once the canvass begins.

Vision for North Carolina

MAPPING OUR FUTURE

Dear Friends,

Transportation impacts nearly every aspect of North Carolina, playing a central role in the overall well-being of our state and our efforts to maintain a high quality of life for our communities. In particular, transportation infrastructure is a powerful economic engine, supporting job creation, helping us attract new business and industry, and ultimately creating better lives from the mountains to the coast.

North Carolina is one of the fastest growing states in the nation, bringing both new challenges and opportunities as we work to keep pace with increasing demand on our infrastructure. The transportation needs of our state are also incredibly diverse, making it impossible to devise a single solution. Complicating this, our traditional revenue sources are falling short of projected levels, making it even more critical that we think and act strategically.

To that end, over the past year and a half, we have been listening closely to stakeholders, partners and citizens to evaluate how we can make the greatest impact with our limited resources, and how we can work together to invest in the right way for North Carolina. We examined existing studies and reports, and we worked together to pass the new Strategic Transportation Investments law, which changes how we fund and prioritize transportation projects and lays the foundation for our efforts moving forward.

Building on that groundwork, this vision serves as a roadmap for strategic investment over the next quarter century to ensure we are fully leveraging our transportation system. It does not provide a list of specific projects, but instead gives us high-level direction for all our transportation efforts by laying out the comprehensive and regional solutions that are needed for North Carolina to achieve its full potential and realize continued success.

The conversation is just beginning, and it will be up to all of us to determine how we make this vision a reality. We invite all of you to partner with us as we work toward transportation investments that will help secure a promising future for North Carolina.

Sincerely,

Pat McCrory Anthony J. Tata

MAPPING)UR FUTURF

From the mountains to the coast, North Carolina is a state of diverse landscapes, people and industries. These attributes make our state a great place to work, visit and call home.

Our talented and educated workforce, innovative research centers and global connectivity attract many companies to our state each year. These companies recognize that our transportation infrastructure is the backbone of North Carolina's economy. With the right new investments in our roads, bridges and other transportation modes, our state will solidify and grow its position as an economic powerhouse.

We cannot reach that goal without a vision and road map for our transportation future. This plan provides a guide for the next 25 years that clearly illustrates how we can better connect all North Carolinians with jobs, education, healthcare, recreation and each other.

Our state has many great opportunities, but we also face challenges.

North Carolina is one of the fastest growing states in the nation. More than 12.5 million people are projected to live here by 2040, a 32 percent increase from the state's 2010 population. The majority of that growth will occur in major metropolitan areas, which are projected to house 81 percent of the state's overall population by 2040. Across the state, our smaller communities are expected to see population growth of more than 180,000 people over the next 25 years.

During this period of rapid growth, we are one of many states simultaneously seeing a sharp decline in the projected revenue needed to build and maintain infrastructure. The state gas tax is no longer a reliable revenue source, and federal funding is uncertain. Therefore, we must find new ways to strategically invest in our transportation network to meet growing demands. The 2040 Plan estimates that over the next 25 years it will cost between $94 billion and $123 billion to maintain and enhance the quality of service offered by our transportation system.

As we work to generate alternative funding sources, we are making the best use possible of our existing revenue by implementing the Strategic Transportation Investments (STI) law. STI allows the state to prioritize its investments, based on quantifiable needs and community input. Early indications show that we can schedule more than twice as many projects with STI than under the old funding system.

2040 BY THE NUMBFR

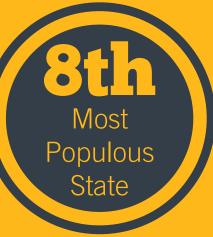

Urban Population: 81%

PROJECTED: 12.5 million residents

In this plan, we review the importance of each region of the state, identify its unique challenges, explain what will happen if no action is taken, and lay out solutions. By mapping our future in this way, we can better leverage our transportation infrastructure to create jobs and stimulate continued economic growth while reducing congestion, improving connectivity and providing additional travel options.

REGIONAL SOLUTIONS

Considering the unique landscapes, economic diversity and distinct challenges present in each region of our state, it is clear that a 'one-size-fits-all' approach for infrastructure investments will not work in North Carolina. This plan recognizes four regions in which we identify the specific infrastructure solutions needed to make our state more globally competitive. On the following pages, we provide a regional breakdown of targeted investments in multi-modal solutions that will create a stronger, more reliable transportation network that connects people to places, products to markets, expands jobs and industry, and enhances the overall quality of life in North Carolina.

WESTERN SOLUTIONS

- Improve Interstate Connections
- Strengthen Highway Connectivity

COASTAL REGION

IMPORTANCE

Millions of visitors flock to North Carolina's coastline every year to enjoy more than 300 miles of beautiful beaches, boating and rich history. Tourism rates continue to increase annually, bringing in nearly $2.6 billion a year in economic activity in coastal North Carolina. In addition, the tourism industry provides more than 29,000 jobs in the state each year.

Dating back to the early 18th century, the fishing industry remains a way of life for our coastal communities. It is responsible for more than 5,180 jobs and contributes more than $255 million to the state's economy annually.

Shipping is another major industry along our coast. Ninety-five percent of global trade and commerce depends on seaports. Our state ports in Wilmington and Morehead City, both foreign trade zones, have a $7.5 billion annual economic impact and support 65,000 jobs statewide. With landside and waterside improvements, the ports would be positioned to respond to the next generation of shipping vessels that will be in service once the major Panama Canal enhancement project is completed.

CHALLENGES

Coastal North Carolina faces a number of challenges, many related to Mother Nature and the area's unique environment.

Severe erosion and extreme weather events like hurricanes continue to shrink the size of our beaches and threaten the roads that run alongside them. Continued exposure to salt water has left many aging coastal bridges in need of repair or replacement.

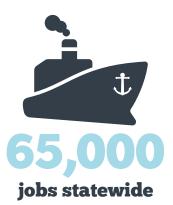

Shifting sands off the coast often make it difficult to navigate the waterways, and constant dredging is needed to keep channels open for shipping and to allow fishing boats to pass through safely.

Seasonal changes in traffic, changing demographics of the year-round residential population and the growing need for access to multi-modal transportation options also place dynamic pressures on the region's transportation infrastructure.

TOURISM RATES INCREASE EACH YEAR

CHALLENGES (CONT.)

Preserving the natural beauty of this region is not just the right thing to do; it is essential to sustaining the region's robust tourism industry. We must balance providing access to residents, tourists and businesses while maintaining the natural beauty and environmental integrity of our coast. Addressing these needs has been, and continues to be, a challenge for our coastal region.

RISK OF DOING NOTHING

If we do not take immediate action to address these transportation issues, we risk losing important connections, thousands of jobs and millions of dollars to support our state. Keeping our roads open and our waterways accessible are vital to many of our state's industries and are necessary if we want to expand economic opportunities and create jobs.

Seasonal congestion and lack of efficient access to and from the coast threaten the viability of our tourism industry. Lack of sufficient channel depths will continue the diversion of our active fishing industry to other marine landings. In addition, if we fail to make improvements at our ports, we stand to lose business in a highly competitive shipping industry. Doing nothing may make it difficult for our ports to attract investments and create new employment opportunities.

If we do not invest in our coastal infrastructure, residents could face isolation from mainland services and resources. Aging bridges, such as the Bonner Bridge, have already encountered temporary closures, which shut down the only highway connection for thousands of Hatteras Island residents to work, schools and healthcare.

Sustainable Beach Nourishment

• Coordinate with local, state and federal partners to develop and implement a proactive, long-range plan for sustainable beach nourishment to protect infrastructure.

• Continue to improve highway Connections • Continue to improve highway routes which provide access to the coast and offer congestion relief during seasonal traffic peaks, while serving as essential emergency evacuation routes.

Replace Aging Bridges

• Continue work to replace aging bridges, keeping important connections for residents, businesses and tourists in place.

Stabilize Inlets

° Develop and implement a proactive, long-range plan for stabilizing our shallow draft inlets and shipping channels, providing important opportunities for industry and improved reliability for our vital ferry routes.

Transform North Carolina Ports

• Pursue including a recommendation in the Army Corps of Engineers Chief's Report to deepen and widen our channels to support movements of the newest generation of shipping vessels.

- Develop intermodal train service at the Port of Wilmington. • Continue to seek opportunities to develop intermodal facilities along the I-95 corridor to support freight shipping.
- Leverage public-private partnerships to complete the development of Radio Island, and support landside improvements in interstate quality connections and enhanced rail access to the Port of Morehead City.

EASTERN REGION

2 C F F F

IMPORTANCE

Eastern North Carolina is a region rich in history, a center of agriculture and home to some of the nation's largest military communities. It is an area built on farming and manufacturing, particularly textiles and tobacco, and it has experienced tremendous change as many of its traditional industries have seen significant declines in prominence.

The region also features a number of healthcare and education centers, and is well positioned to connect with other economic centers across state lines, particularly in the southeastern and northeastern corners of the United States. In addition, the northern portion of the region is strategically located near Hampton Roads, Va. and the Port of Norfolk, which boasts an annual gross domestic product of $85 billion.

With a robust military presence, the eastern region is home to seven military bases. With more than 110,000 active duty personnel (fourth largest in the nation) and 770,000 veterans, North Carolina is regularly recognized as one of the most military friendly states in the nation. Annually, the area supports an overall military-related economic impact of $48 billion, including 540,000 military-related jobs.

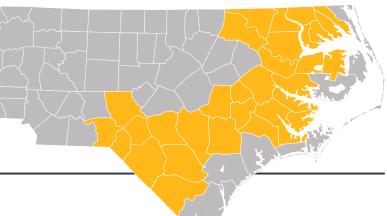

Agriculture remains an economic staple for the region, generating a total annual income of $6.7 billion in eastern North Carolina alone.

The area is also home to the 2,500-acre Global TransPark, which features a foreign trade zone and an 11,500 foot runway, and is strategically located along the U.S. 70 corridor between the Port of Morehead City and Raleigh. Anchor tenant Spirit Aerosystems projects it will increase its workforce to more than 1,000 employees by 2016, doubling its staff size.

CHALLENGES

Sounds, wetlands, rivers and streams are just a few of the prominent environmental features of the eastern region that create challenges as we work to design a safe, efficient, environmentally sound and well-connected transportation network in this region.

Lack of interstate-quality access to and from the GTP limits the number and type of businesses we can attract to this facility. Even with the foreign trade zone, commercial runways and onsite facilities prepared to serve growing businesses, the lack of investment in the "last-mile infrastructure" prohibits the GTP from successfully recruiting new companies and expanding existing ones.

As it transitions from a center of manufacturing and agriculture, the eastern region has struggled to complete several significant infrastructure projects, such as improvements to U.S. 17 and U.S. 70, that would help the area recruit new businesses to better meet its changing needs.

Population rates continue to decline in the region, as trends indicate that people are moving away from rural areas and into high-growth urban centers. Without the infrastructure to support new industries and provide efficient connections to job centers, this trend will not change.

RISK OF DOING NOTHING

Without appropriate infrastructure investments in the eastern region, this area will miss opportunities to reclaim manufacturing jobs that are returning to the United States and will not be able to respond to changing agricultural demands. Lack of timely investment along the U.S. 70 corridor will limit the region's ability to leverage its position to enhance the economy on local and state levels.

If we do not invest in highway and rail connections that support military freight and deployment needs, military readiness may be impacted. Likewise, if we do not provide better access for service members and their families to healthcare and education, we risk failing those who have sacrificed so much. Additionally, we risk not keeping highly trained and talented veterans and civilians in our state.

IMPORTANCE

Central North Carolina is a center for high-tech industry, innovative medicine and research, and world-renowned higher education. From the Charlotte area to the Triad and the Triangle, people and products are on the move, and global connectivity has never been more important. The majority of the jobs, as well as some of the state's largest companies and employers, are located in this area.

The central region is the state's largest economic engine, providing $300 billion in gross domestic product and accounting for 67 percent of the state's total GDP. Currently, 61 percent of our population lives in central North Carolina, and trends indicate that percentage will continue to grow.

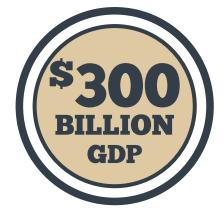

With foreign trade zones at Charlotte-Douglas International, Piedmont-Triad International and Raleigh-Durham International airports, the region is well-connected to global markets. In addition, the area, internationally known for its exceptional colleges and universities, hosts 62 percent of all college enrollments in the state.

As central North Carolina grows in both population and economic importance, it will need infrastructure enhancements to manage and support this growth.

CHALLENGES

Increasing population growth will continue to place pressure on a transportation system that in many areas is at or beyond capacity. Growing demand for mobility options will overload existing transit services and congest roadways, causing them to rapidly deteriorate.

Expanding industries, while beneficial to the economy of the region, place additional demands on infrastructure originally designed for smaller scale logistics and commuter needs. Businesses looking to transport goods and services are competing for space on congested commuter routes. People who live in high-growth areas within the central region have limited options to avoid existing congestion, such as mass transit, passenger rail, light rail and bicycle/pedestrian routes. Trends show that more people are moving to densely populated areas, where they expect access to these services as they live, work and play.

RISK OF DOING NOTHING

In the metropolitan areas of central North Carolina, congestion alone costs travelers nearly $1.9 billion a year. Drivers also spend an estimated $2.3 billion a year in safety-related repairs to vehicles annually after traveling on roads in need of repair or resurfacing. These costs combined total $4.2 billion a year. The only way to reduce that figure is to improve existing roadways and launch innovative new infrastructure projects to address the worst congestion in our major urban areas.

With $364 billion in goods shipped from sites within North Carolina and $337 billion in goods shipped to sites in our state each year, the quality of our transportation system is increasingly important as a site selection criterion for companies looking to relocate or expand. Specifically, highway accessibility remains their number-one site selection factor.

Eighty-six percent of goods shipped from sites within North Carolina are carried by truck, which illustrates that well-maintained roads without traffic bottlenecks are essential to a vibrant economy. The strength of our logistics and shipping industries in the central region will be marginalized if we do not keep our sights on the maintenance and traffic flow improvements needed in this increasingly congested portion of the state.

Another factor companies will consider before making a move to central North Carolina is the quality of life for their potential employees. Excellent transportation services are essential to the region's success in this area. Access to efficient, reliable public transportation options will not only address traffic congestion, it will also increase safety by reducing crash rates. If we take no action, we will lose intercity connections and easy access to community services. This will lead to other states outcompeting us during site selection processes. We must plan for the future transportation needs of all residents by including robust plans for multi-modal transportation options.

INVESTING IN SOLUTIONS

Relieve Congestion for People and Products • Continue work on interstate improvements and congestion relief projects to support freight movements and commuter needs and better connect people to education, healthcare, job and recreation centers.

Expand Mass Transit Options

• Support the expansion of mass transit options in high-growth areas to address the needs of a changing demographic, congestion and land development concerns.

^o Support the expansion of light rail services in existing and new urban markets when demand, local planning and funding support the service to address the needs of a changing business climate and congestion concerns.

Enhance Access to Inland Ports

• Improve highway connections and seek economically competitive rail service to inland ports in and around Charlotte.

Improve Connectivity to Logistics Hubs • Improve highway connections and expand airfreight and rail capabilities to support the Triad Logistics Hub.

Support Connections to Privately Developed Megasites • Ensure infrastructure plans recognize the development of megasites in the region and support their ability to attract new businesses in targeted industry clusters.

IMPORTANCE

Western North Carolina's tree-lined mountains not only make this region unique, they also contribute in a significant way to our economy. Our state ranks second in the nation in Christmas tree production, a business that generates more than $75 million in annual sales, mostly from several key western counties. The craft brewing industry is rapidly growing in the western region, too, and popular breweries such as Sierra Nevada and New Belgium are now opening shop in the area.

Another major economic driver in western North Carolina is the apple industry. In Henderson County alone, it generates about $22 million annually and accounts for 65 percent of all apple production in the state.

The region also offers the greatest concentration of arts and crafts education in the country. Sales of art in western North Carolina are nearly 30 percent higher than the state as a whole on a per capita basis. Buncombe County saw about $44 million in direct economic benefits from the arts and crafts trade in 2012.

Western North Carolina's breath-taking waterfalls and winding trails make it a prime tourist destination, as well. The scenic beauty of this region is what draws thousands of people from across the state and around the world to the area each year to camp, ski, raft or simply take in the view from the Blue Ridge Parkway. Historic sites like the Biltmore House and Gardens, and gaming attractions like the casino in Cherokee also significantly contribute to the local economy by attracting more than 4.5 million visitors each year.

In addition, western North Carolina provides a gateway to a number of economic centers in surrounding states, and enhanced connections would open new opportunities for employment, healthcare, education and recreation.

CHALLENGES

The natural beauty and rugged terrain that are hallmarks of the state's western region also limit our ability to build new infrastructure and expand what already exists without negatively impacting the natural environment. Preserving the beauty of this region is key to our $3 billion tourism industry, yet we must find a way to provide access and connections to and through this region.

WESTERN REGION

The region continues to struggle as workers move away from small towns to high-growth urban centers for job opportunities and access to healthcare and education services. Infrastructure investments that increase the freight capacity and throughput potential in the area will have a significant impact on the region's ability to maintain current businesses and attract new ones.

Challenging terrain and deteriorating facilities present obstacles to moving freight along highway routes and rail corridors. With $1 billion in agribusiness annually, the western region must find ways to expand rail access, which will provide opportunities to expand this industry and draw in new business.

RISK OF DOING NOTHING

If we do not invest in the infrastructure necessary to better connect the western region to economic centers within the state (Asheville, Charlotte, Winston-Salem, etc.) and to nearby economic centers such as Atlanta, Greenville/Spartanburg and Knoxville, the number of businesses and jobs in the region will decline rapidly. With GDP rates of $294 billion, $18.9 billion and $35 billion respectively, lack of adequate connections to these economic centers will make it nearly impossible for western North Carolina to achieve its vision of a sustainable and thriving regional economy.

Without new investments to expand industrial rail access, freight movements throughout the region may become less efficient and less reliable. Growth in agribusiness will become flat, commercial warehouses will continue to move away, and businesses attracted to the quality of life unique to the region will ultimately decide to locate elsewhere. That would mean fewer jobs available for local residents.

INVESTING IN SOLUTIONS

Improve Interstate Connections

• Împrove highway connections throughout the western region to attract business to North Carolina through expanded access to economic centers in Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Strengthen Highway Connectivity from Mountains to Coast

• Improve U.S. 74 to interstate standards from Asheville to Charlotte and from Charlotte to Wilmington to improve freight movements and in-state access to the Port of Wilmington.

Improve Intrastate Connections

Improve highway connections from the western region to Asheville, Charlotte and Winston-Salem to support a growing tourism economy and provide greater access to healthcare services and job training opportunities.

Enhance Industrial Rail to Support Freight and Economic

• Provide industrial access to freight rail lines to accommodate expanding agribusiness and economic development needs while fully utilizing our multimodal transportation system.

COMPREHENSIVE

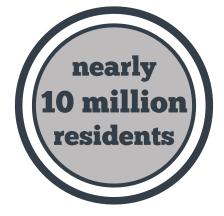

There are infrastructure needs that transcend regions and require comprehensive solutions. We must strengthen the maintenance of our existing roadways, improve public transportation networks including passenger rail service, expand bicycle and pedestrian networks and support greater broadband connectivity. This section of the plan addresses the importance and challenges of these infrastructure needs, examines the potential risks of ignoring these concerns and identifies strategic solutions.

IMPORTANCE

North Carolina is a great place to live, work and visit, and our state continues to see a significant increase in population and businesses every year. Nearly 10 million people call North Carolina home, an increase of 1.5 million in less than 10 years. As people make decisions about where to move, they often factor in the walkability of the area, local public transportation options and connectivity to education, healthcare and recreation options.

Our state is home to 21 Fortune 1,000 companies, and in 2013, Forbes Magazine ranked North Carolina the fourth best state in the nation for business. Recent tax code changes lowering tax rates will help attract even more new businesses to the state. As site selection experts increasingly make decisions based on available amenities, our state is poised to be a global economic powerhouse. Making the right investment in our transportation network will enhance the quality of life throughout North Carolina.

The many great things that attract people and companies to North Carolina also contribute to one of the state's biggest challenges, rapid population growth. In an era of "hyper-connectivity", North Carolina needs to be innovative in its approach to connecting all regions of the state to important economic, education, healthcare and recreation centers. We must plan for and invest in the infrastructure needed to support the nearly 12.5 million residents expected to call North Carolina home over the next 25 years.

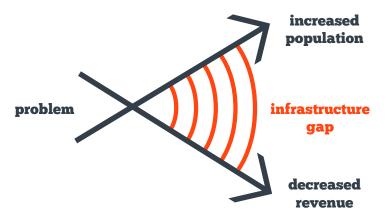

21 Fortune 1,000 companies

COMPREHENSIVE NEEDS

CHALLENGES

Overall funding levels for investments in transportation infrastructure are insufficient. In 2014, metropolitan and rural planning organizations and NCDOT identified more than 3,100 projects, totaling $70 billion in infrastructure needs across all modes of transportation. With $1.5 billion per year in funding available over the next 10 years, clearly, there is not enough money to support all of those needs. The largest portion of that available funding goes toward highways and bridges. North Carolina must find a way to financially support investments in all modes of transportation and be prepared to address emerging trends, such as fuel efficient/alternative fuel vehicles, autonomous vehicles, public-private partnerships and light rail systems.

RISK OF DOING NOTHING

To maintain a competitive advantage, North Carolina must invest in its existing infrastructure, while identifying deficiencies where new facilities are needed. Delays in the delivery of goods and services, inefficiencies in the movement of freight and lost time due to congestion during daily commutes come at a tremendous cost to the state. Certainly, there are direct financial considerations such as the $6.5 billion lost by North Carolina travelers as they drive along roadways that require improvements. However, the most significant costs to the state will be lost wages, lost jobs, lost revenue and lost opportunities.

Our transportation network is at or beyond its capacity in some of the fastest growing regions of the state. In our smaller towns and rural counties, facilities are aging and in need of costly repairs. Inadequate investment in either will overwhelm North Carolina and create an unsafe, inefficient and uninviting environment.

INVESTING IN SOLUTIONS

Strengthen Maintenance of our Existing Facilities

• Evaluate and improve the prioritization system for funding maintenance projects to implement an authentic, needs-based program.

As funding solutions are determined, ensure an increased percentage of revenue directed toward maintenance.

• Identify opportunities for using public-private partnerships to fund maintenance needs.

Improve Public Transportation Network including Passenger Rail

• Expand access to mass transit options in high-growth areas to accommodate a changing demographic and address congestion issues.

• Expand access to public transportation options for people in all regions of the state to accommodate local transportation needs and enhance the quality of life throughout the state.

• Expand access to passenger rail options in all regions of the state to accommodate a changing demographic, address congestion issues and meet regional transportation needs.

Expand Bicycle and Pedestrian Network Statewide

• Implement Walk/Bike NC, the North Carolina Statewide Pedestrian and Bicycle Plan, enabling the state to become a premier place for walking and bicycling.

• Continue the implementation of the North Carolina Complete Streets Policy to make it easier and safer for people to walk, bicycle, drive or use public transportation services.

• Support the completion of statewide and regionally significant bicycle and pedestrian systems in order to provide transportation options and promote the "great trails state" brand.

Support Greater Broadband Connectivity through Existing Right of Way

• Support the expansion of broadband access, using existing right of way where possible, to establish the foundation for connectivity required for intelligent transportation systems, support the growth of high-tech businesses, expand access to educational opportunities, and enhance global business connectivity.

INVESTING IN OUR VISION

With STI's data-driven prioritization process increasing our efficiency in using Highway Trust Fund money to program close to 370 projects over the next 10 years, and a vision that maps our future and guides infrastructure investments over the next 25 years, we must now focus on investing in our vision.

North Carolina is rated number five by CNBC's America's Top States for Businesses 2014. We are consistently ranked among the best business climates in the nation by Forbes, CNBC, and Chief Executive and Site Selection magazines. Our low cost of living and high quality of life make North Carolina a magnet for recruiting and keeping a talented workforce. Currently, we are ranked number one in the southeast for manufacturing employment, and ninth overall in the United States. North Carolina is home to a 58-campus community college system, nationally recognized for its customized workforce training programs. Our 16-campus renowned university system is integral to North Carolina's strong research and development infrastructure and one of the most varied biotech sectors in the nation.

Because infrastructure is the backbone of North Carolina's economy, we cannot afford to let our system deteriorate, and we must build to anticipate future growth.

Already, North Carolina residents are paying out of pocket for insufficient transportation infrastructure in congestion costs ($2 billion), vehicle operating costs ($1.8 billion) and safety-related expenses, which equal approximately $639.95 per taxpaying citizen. Costs for improvements on aging infrastructure are increasing rapidly, with Interstate 95 improvements alone projected to cost $4.5 billion. Industries along the coast, such as commercial fishing, are already being diverted to competitor ports due to inadequate maintenance of shallow draft shipping channels. Older structures along the coast created a dangerous situation when residents were isolated from essential services during the Bonner Bridge closure in 2013. In addition, residents and travelers are at an increased safety risk as 13 percent of all traffic fatalities involve bicyclists and pedestrians.

At 80,000 miles, North Carolina maintains the second largest highway system in the nation. The state also maintains the second largest ferry system in the nation; 3,345 miles of rail lines; the Ports of Morehead City and Wilmington; the Charlotte and Piedmont Triad Inland Terminals; and the Global TransPark. CHALLENGES (CONT.)

72 publicly owned airports, 99 public transit systems, and more than 5,000 miles of planned bicycle and pedestrian routes throughout the state. Maintaining and growing these investments is critical to our state's continued success.

Future discussions about transportation funding will focus on the role of the state in supporting the costs of maintaining and building transportation infrastructure—Should there be a fee for service utility? Or, should there be a public service supported by taxes? More than 12.5 million people are projected to reside in North Carolina by 2040, and finding additional revenue to support our transportation needs will not be a simple task.

North Carolina provides a strategic transportation and logistics connection to markets throughout the region, nation and world. Historically, our transportation investments focused on building infrastructure that connected producers to markets. This basic principle still holds. However, today, producers and markets look different and are located in different areas of the state than in the past. In the world of geopolitics, our military installations continue to use facilities that allow them to deploy troops via land, sea and air. The freight industry continues to ship products up and down the east coast using deteriorating facilities like I-85/I-95. Tourists regularly overwhelm local transportation systems during peak seasons. We must support these industries through the maintenance and expansion of our transportation network.

RISK OF DOING NOTHING

If North Carolina does not reinvest in its transportation infrastructure and revisit how we generate revenue to build new infrastructure, our transportation network will become inefficient, unreliable and unsafe. As increased congestion limits access to essential services, creates hardships for businesses dependent on reliable movement of goods and services, and crash and fatality rates increase due to deficient facilities, businesses will choose to move to or locate in other states, taking jobs and economic development opportunities with them.

As infrastructure investments cease to address the needs of our growing population, industries will face great challenges. Agricultural businesses may not be able to grow and respond to changes in global demands for their products and services. Military installations will not be able to effectively deploy troops when needed. Tourist destinations may be increasingly difficult to reach, and vacationers will stop traveling to our most popular sites.

If we do not increase our investments in support of existing and needed infrastructure, North Carolina will fail to thrive.

Gov. Pat McCrory said Wednesday he wants the state to borrow more than $1 billion to "kick-start" a raft of mostly rural transportation projects.

"Our small towns are still struggling," McCrory told an audience in Greenville. "And our major emphasis in economic development is going to be put toward our towns, you know, from 10 to 50 thousand people."

The governor and Transportation Secretary Tony Tata traveled to four cities from Wilmington to Asheville to unveil a 25-year plan for rail, port, transit and highway investments across the state. Urban area priorities, such as mass transit and freeway upgrades, were included in McCrory's "25-Year Vision for North Carolina."

But when the governor said he would ask the 2015 General Assembly to approve revenue bonds to pay for a list of 21 or 22 projects, he said this borrowed money would be steered away from the larger cities. The major metropolitan areas are growing and enjoying economic revival, he said, while rural areas are in decline.

"We've looked at some specific projects where we think these bonds will speed up projects which really have been sitting on the sidelines," McCrory said. "They're projects ready right now."

The projects tentatively targeted to receive bond funds, released late Wednesday by the state Department of Transportation, included urban loops in Fayetteville and Winston-Salem, along with rural highway improvements across the state. The only Triangle projects were U.S. 401 in Franklin and northern Wake counties, and N.C. 42 and Booker Dairy Road in Johnston County.

There appeared to be no overlap between the bond list and the statewide priorities spelled out in the governor's 25-year plan. It included a new interstate route through rural northeastern counties to the economic hub in Virginia's Hampton Roads area.

"If you go to Elizabeth City right now, which has a fairly high unemployment rate, we think the best opportunity for that region is to connect with Virginia and that economic center," McCrory said.

McCrory also targeted two other highways to be upgraded to interstate standards: U.S. 74 from Asheville through Charlotte to Wilmington, and U.S. 70 in the eastern part of the state.

A long-sought multibillion-dollar overhaul for Interstate 95 was not on the governor's list, nor was a stretch of U.S. 64 from Cary to Asheboro that DOT previously has targeted for an interstate upgrade.

Citing a forecast for steady population growth that will give North Carolina 12.5 million residents by 2040, McCrory's plan says the state will need new revenue streams to replace or bolster the per-gallon gas tax, which is generating less money as Americans switch to cars that burn less gas or use alternate fuels.

McCrory said he will recommend new transportation revenue sources to the 2015 General Assembly – possibly in conjunction with a cut in the gas tax – to address needs expected to cost between $94 billion and $123 billion by 2040.

McCrory's transportation plan (online at NCVision25.gov) divides most of his proposals into four regions, including:

• Coastal: Replace old bridges (such as the Bonner Bridge over Oregon Inlet) and stabilize inlets and navigation channels. Promote beach nourishment to protect infrastructure, such as N.C. 12 on the Outer Banks, which is slated to receive a buffer of beach sand at Rodanthe. Upgrade the Morehead City and Wilmington ports.

• Eastern: Improve rail and road links from the two ports to Interstate 95, military bases and the Global Transpark at Kinston. Bring U.S. 70 to interstate standards for shorter travel times and easier freight movement. Bring parts of U.S. 17 and U.S. 64 to interstate standards as part of a new freeway to Hampton Roads.

• Central: Expand light rail and other mass transit options in high-growth urban areas "to address the needs of a changing demographic, congestion and land development concerns." Improve road and rail access to Charlotte's inland ports and to the Piedmont Triad International Airport logistics hub near Greensboro. Continue interstate and other road improvements to ease the flow of freight and commuter traffic.

• Western: Strengthen interstate links to economic centers in neighboring Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee. Improve industrial access to rail lines and highway routes to Charlotte and Winston-Salem.

How to pay for it

Other items include statewide improvements to public transportation – such as passenger train service, bicycle and pedestrian facilities – and public access to a broadband communications network along highway rights of way.

Julie White, who lobbies for cities as executive director of the N.C. Metropolitan Mayors Coalition, said she had not had a chance to study the list of mostly rural bond projects. She praised McCrory's overall 25-year plan.

"It's an exciting vision," White said. "It encompasses all modes of transportation. The real question is how we're going to pay for it. Where's the money going to come from?"

If the General Assembly agrees next year, the state would issue revenue bonds to speed the start of projects that are ready or nearly ready to start construction, Tata said. The targeted projects would be expected to generate 20,000 to 70,000 jobs, depending on how employment is calculated, he said.

"It would be a loan, essentially, capitalizing on low interest rates," Tata said. "The criteria for the projects would be that they have their permits complete and they would be ready to go within a year of approval of the bonds."

McCrory said his new plan represents a shift away from politically driven highway spending.

"It's taking, basically, the politics out," McCrory said in Greenville. "And looking at the data for where we can create jobs, where we can save lives, and where we can create opportunity."

County of Sampson Community Development Block Grant Program Citizen Participation Plan

I. CITIZEN PARTICIPATION PLAN:

This plan describes how the County of Sampson will involve citizens in the planning, implementation and assessment of the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program. The funds must be used for projects which benefit low and moderate-income persons and aids in the elimination and prevention of slums and blight. The program is intended to assist governments in understanding neighborhood improvement programs. The regulations give ultimate responsibility for the design and implementation of the program to local elected officials and also requires that citizens be given an opportunity to serve in a key advisory role to these elected officials.

II. SCOPE OF CITIZEN PARTICIPATION:

Citizens will be involved in all stages of the CDBG program, including program implementation, assessment of performance and design of changes in the Citizen Participation Plan. There will be three (3) general mechanisms for their involvement:

- 1. To serve as an advisory committee to the project;
- 2. To attend or hold public hearings or community meetings; and
- 3. To provide individual citizen efforts in the form of comments, complaints or inquiries submitted directly to the Program Administrators or designated County official.

III. PROGRAM IMPLEMENTATION:

Citizen participation in program implementation will occur primarily through consultation with the County. The County will be asked to review and comment on specific guidelines for approved projects. They will also meet to review any program amendments, budget revisions and program modifications. All such changes will be discussed with the County and their comments considered prior to taking action. If program amendments require approval from the North Carolina Department of Commerce, a public hearing shall be held specifically on the amendment. Citizens may also be involved in implementation of projects specifically requiring citizen participation, such as self-help projects. Their roles will be defined as the project develops. Technical assistance will be available as needed.

IV. PROGRAM ASSESSMENT:

Program assessment activities by citizens will occur in a variety of ways. A performance hearing will be held thirty to sixty (30 to 60) days prior to the start of planning for the next program year. The Program Amendment will be asked to provide citizen commentary for the Grantee Performance Report.

Citizens shall be involved in the determination of priorities and community needs. The views and proposals of citizens concerning community needs and priorities, especially the views of low and moderate income persons and members of minority groups shall be solicited through two public hearings held prior to the submission of a CDBG Application.

Adequate notice of public hearings shall be provided in a timely manner and in such a way as to make them accessible and understandable to all citizens. Notices for required public hearings shall appear in the nonlegal section of a local newspaper at least once prior to the date of the public hearing. Notices shall be published not less than ten days nor more than twenty-five days before the date fixed for the hearing. Such notices shall indicate the time, date, place and a brief description of the topic of the public hearing.

During these public hearings citizens shall be encouraged to submit views and proposals regarding community needs. Comments may be either oral or written.

Citizens are invited to submit comments on all aspects of program performance throughout the program year. Written comments may be presented at public hearings or they may be mailed in for consideration prior to the hearing. In any case, written comments for public hearing consideration must be received no later than the date and prior to the time of the public hearing.

All comments should be addressed to:

County of Sampson

Re: 2012-13 Capital Outlay School Roofing Allocation

Dear M. Causey:

We were very diligent in the execution of the approved projects to replace the roofs for the Roseboro Middle Gymnasium, Union Intermediate Gymnasium, and Hobbton High Gymnasium Area. Of the $452,250.00 allocated by the County for these critical roofing needs in our school system, we managed to complete all three roofs for a cost of $396,634.00. These improvements to our infrastructure will help ensure the effectiveness of these facilities and greatly impact the quality of education Sampson County students receive for a very long time.

While these three roofing needs were our most critical and had the most direct impact on our students, we have other significant roofing needs in our system that must be addressed. Specifically at our Plant Operations Complex, we have three buildings that house our fabrication work shop, HVAC warehouse / service building, and multipurpose service building (see attached photos). These are original building roofs and would cost an estimated $15,000.00 to replace.

In addition, the gymnasium roof at the Old Midway Elementary School is as old and worn as the gymnasium roofs were at Roseboro Middle and Union Intermediate. In addition to the Telamon contract at that location, that facility houses our migrant programs and the gymnasium is utilized by the Recreation Department to serve the community. While it is far too expensive to replace that gymnasium roof, we do believe it is worth a major resurfacing to extend the life of that roof an additional 15 - 20 years at a cost of approximately $22,000.

Of the $55,616.00 remaining from our original allocation, we request approval to utilize $37,000 to replace 3 roofs at the Plant Operations Complex and resurface the Old Midway Elementary Gymnasium.

Original 2012-13 Roof Request/Allocation:

Roseboro Middle Gymnasium	$141,750.00
Union Intermediate Gymnasium	$149,500.00
Hobbton High Gymnasium Area	$161,000.00
Total Allocation	$452,250.00
Spent	$396,634.00
Remaining	$55,616.00
Follow-on Request:
Plant Operation Complex	$15,000.00
Old Midway Elementary Gymnasium	$22,000.00
Back for other County needs	$18,616.00

These additional projects will significantly improve our infrastructure and maintain our county school investments. Please do not hesitate to call if you have any questions concerning this request.

Sincerely,

ou Vela Lou Nelon

Executive Director of Auxiliary Services Sampson County Schools

SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

The Sampson County Board of Commissioners convened for their regular meeting at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, August 4, 2014 in the County Auditorium, 435 Rowan Road in Clinton, North Carolina. Members present: Chairman Jefferson Strickland, Vice Chairman Jarvis McLamb, Commissioner Albert D. Kirby, Jr., Commissioner Billy Lockamy, and Commissioner Harry Parker.

The Chairman convened the meeting. A moment of silence was observed honoring the family lost in a tragic fire in Garland, followed by the invocation led by Commissioner Parker. Commissioner Lockamy then led the Pledge Allegiance.

Approval of Agenda

Upon a motion made by Commissioner McLamb and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to approve the agenda with the addition one budget amendment.

Item 1: Roads

Monthly Report - NCDOT District Engineer Keith Eason was present to address questions or concerns from the Board or citizens in attendance. Mr. Eason reported that Litter Sweep would occur from September 20th to October 4th, and encouraged the public to participate. As requested at the Board's previous meeting, Mr. Eason provided information on the process and criteria for the addition of roads to the secondary roads system, providing a copy of the pertinent sections of the State's manual. Commissioner Kirby asked if there were any limit on the number of roads which could qualify for addition in a jurisdiction, and Mr. Eason and DOT District Engineer Lin Reynolds stated there was not.

Recognition of Retiring District Engineer The Board recognized retiring District Engineer Linwood E. Reynolds for his service to the citizens of Sampson County while serving in his capacity with NCDOT.

Item 2: Planning & Zoning Items

ZA-8-14-1 The Chairman opened the hearing and recognized Planning Director Mary Rose who reviewed the request to amend the Sampson County Zoning Ordinance Section 5.1 Continuance of Nonconforming Buildings, which had been unanimously recommended by the Planning Board. Ms. Rose noted that the goal of Planning staff was to request subtle changes to the ordinance which would reduce perceived challenges for citizens and improve customer service. The Chairman opened the floor for public comments, and none were received; the hearing was closed. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to approve the following amendment to the Sampson County Zoning Ordinance, Section 5.1 Continuance of Nonconforming Buildings:

- A. The lawful use of a building existing at the time of the passage of this Ordinance shall not be affected by this Ordinance, and such use may be extended throughout the building provided no structural alterations except those required by law, ordinance or ordered by the zoning officer to secure the safety of the building are made therein, but no such use shall be extended to occupy land outside such building. If such nonconforming building is removed or the nonconforming use of such building is discontinued for a continuous period of more than one hundred and eighty (180) days, every future use of such premises shall be in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance.
- B. Notwithstanding Section (5.1.A), any structure used for single-family residential purposes and maintained as a nonconforming use may be enlarged, so long as the enlargement does not create new nonconformities or increase the extent of existing nonconformities with respect to such matters as setback.

ZA-8-14-2 The Chairman opened the hearing and recognized Planning Director Mary Rose who reviewed the request to amend the Sampson County Zoning Ordinance Section 5.2 Continuance of Nonconforming Use of Land, which had been unanimously recommended by the Planning Board. The Chairman opened the floor for public comments, and none were received; the hearing was closed. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the Board voted unanimously to approve the following amendment to the Sampson County Zoning Ordinance, Section 5.2 Continuance of Nonconforming Use of Land:

- A. The lawful use of "land" existing at the time of the passage of this Ordinance, although such use does not conform to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall not be affected by this Ordinance provided, however, that no such nonconforming use shall be extended to occupy a greater area of land than occupied by such use at the time of the passage of this Ordinance. If such nonconforming use is discontinued for a continuous period of more than one hundred and eighty (180) days, every future use of said land shall be in conformity with the provision of this Ordinance.
- B. Notwithstanding Section (5.2.A), any structure not in compliance with this ordinance and intended to be used for single-family residential purposes, which use has been discontinued for a continuous period of more than one hundred and eighty (180) days, complies with the Sampson County Building Inspections residential requirements, and the structure has not deteriorated by more than (60) percent of its assessed value may have its use reinstated for residential purposes by the permit writing authority.

ZA-8-14-3 The Chairman opened the hearing and recognized Planning Director Mary Rose who reviewed the request to amend the Sampson County Zoning Ordinance to add Class B Manufactured Homes as a permitted use in Section 3.3.3 MRD Mixed Residential District. Ms. Rose noted that this was not a unanimous recommendation by the Planning Board, and if the commissioners did not approve the amendment, such requests could be handled on a case by case basis as a variance. The Chairman opened the floor for public comments, and none were received; the hearing was closed. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the Board voted unanimously to approve the following amendment to the Sampson County Zoning Ordinance, Section 3.3.3 MRD Mixed Residential District:

B. Permitted Principal Uses and Structures:

Accessory uses and structures (see general provisions) Agriculture (Bona fide farms) Dwelling, Single Family (including modular homes) Class A Manufactured Homes Class B Manufactured Homes Churches and their customary uses including childcare on premises, fellowship halls, playgrounds Public utility distribution lines & easements (exempt from yard requirements)

Item 3: Reports & Presentations

Recognition of David and Jeannie King The Board recognized David and Jeannie King for their years of services in the establishment and maintenance of the Sampson County History Museum. The Chairman presented an engraved pewter plaque.

Presentation – Dominion Power Proposed Natural Gas Pipeline, Southeast Reliability Project John Elliott, Director of Government and Community Relations for Duke Energy Carolinas announced Duke Energy's partnership with Piedmont Natural Gas in the 550-mile natural gas pipeline to transport natural gas from West Virginia to eastern North Carolina, and noted that Dominion Power would partner and build the pipeline. Mr. Elliott introduced Michael Thompson of Dominion Power who provided a PowerPoint presentation outlining the project and plans for community input on the project (see attached). The Board expressed their excitement about the project's prospects and welcomed Dominion Power to the community.

Item 4: Action Items

Consideration of Resolution Requesting Amendment to Legislation to Designate the Segment of US Highway 117 from Goldsboro South to I-40 Intersection as a Future Interstate Highway Economic Developer John Swope recapped the discussions from the Wayne County Transportation Committee meeting attended by him, Commissioners Lockamy and Kirby and TAG Chairman Jerol Kivett with regard to the efforts to add a section of US 117 as future Interstate 795. The group requested the approval of a resolution supporting its efforts given the potential impact to the economic development of eastern NC and this portion of Sampson County (the intersection of 117 and I-40), and if approved, the same resolution would be considered by the Economic Development Commission and the Sampson County Transportation Advocacy Group for submission to the offices of Senators Burr and Hagan and Congressman Butterfield. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner McLamb, the Board voted unanimously to adopt the resolution as presented. (Copy filed in Inc. Minute Book ______)

Consideration of Amendment to the Sampson County Noise Ordinance County Attorney Joel Starling provided information at the Board's request for options for amending the noise ordinance in response to a citizen's concerns raised during the public comment portion of the Board's August meeting. Mr. Starling cautioned the Board with regard to making changes to "legislate enforcement," and noted that it may not make sense to amend the ordinance to address an isolated issue which may be more of enforcement in nature. It was questioned whether the concerns raised were frequent and widespread. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board tabled further discussion until the October meeting.

Appointments - Workforce Development Board This item was tabled.

Appointments – Juvenile Justice (JCPC) Upon a motion made by Commissioner McLamb and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the Board voted unanimously to appoint Rev. Dudley Neal, Angela Hodges and Tommy Macon to the JCPC Board.

- a. Notice of Annual Meeting with SRMC Board of Trustees on October 27, 2014
- b. NCACC Legislative Goals Proposal Request

County Manager Reports

County Manager Ed Causey reported that the Town of Garland had invited the Board to their Garland Community Day on October 4th. He reported that he and Chairman had attended the NCACC Annual Conference in mid-August, that he had taken an introductory course in County finance, and that he would be on vacation the following week. He noted that staff would be beginning the work on the audit and working on the pay study. He noted that he and the Tax Administrator would be preparing for a report to the Board early in the new year on avenues for additional revenue.

Public Comments

The following public comments were offered:

Gary Wayne Hall: Proud to see that downtown is growing – Raynor's remodeling, Abbigail's opening. Hoped to see something in the old Belk's building, and Burney's is coming. We are kinda in a situation where I would like for the Board to consider or think about the fact that parking is an important part of our downtown business. Recently, the Board decided that they wanted to take a parking space over next to the Courthouse. I think it is a great thing for y'all to have for business reasons, but I haven't seen it used very much. They consider a parking space to be worth anywhere from $500 to $1,000 per week nationally. I don't know if it would be that much in Clinton, but it is worth something to me to have downtown for my customers to use. I would ask you to consider the fact that if it's not being used, either re-do it so that it's opened back up to the public or either take it and make it a system where all the people with the County commissioners could use it. Whether it is for a cup of coffee with the new place that will be open or business they need to do at the Courthouse. I just hate to see it being vacated with the amount of business that we are hoping to receive. I would also like for you to reconsider – the wording on it is a little tough when you say that they will be towed. We only give them a $5 - $10 parking ticket when they pull in front of my place and they're there all day long. It hurts my business, but I wouldn't want them to be towed. A parking ticket by what the police do would be adequate enough.

Adjournment

Upon a motion made by Commissioner McLamb and seconded by Commissioner Lockamy, the Board voted unanimously to adjourn.

Jefferson B. Strickland, Chairman

Susan J. Holder, Clerk to the Board

SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

The Sampson County Board of Commissioners reconvened at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, July 28, 2014, in County Auditorium, 435 Rowan Road, in Clinton North Carolina. Members present: Chairman Jefferson Strickland, Vice Chairman Jarvis McLamb, and Commissioners Albert D. Kirby, Jr., Billy Lockamy and Harry Parker.

Chairman Strickland re-convened the meeting and thanked those present for their interest in the budget matter. He called upon Commissioner Parker for the invocation. Commissioner Lockamy then led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Chairman Strickland called upon County Manager Ed Causey for a recap of where the Board stood in the budget adoption process. Mr. Causey noted that the Board had previously adopted an interim budget ordinance which expired on July 31, 2014, as well as an interim budget ordinance for the month of August, which would take effect if a consensus could not be reached by July 31, 2014. He stated that if a permanent budget were adopted that evening, the interim ordinance for August would be unnecessary. He noted that the Board had previously considered, but not approved, a proposed budget with a tax increase of 4.5 cents (tax rate of 83 cents). The Board had also considered reductions to the originally proposed budget that brought the proposed tax increase of 9 cents down to 5.25 cents, and the Board could use either for a starting point of their deliberations. He stated that if any motion made included the adoption of a budget ordinance – the legal document which sets the tax rate and fees – then an additional meeting/vote on the budget would not be needed.

Commissioner Kirby stated that it had been a tough year on all. He had seen the pain departments would endure with a 5% across-the-board cuts, and he had looked at the material provided by the Manager with regard to a 3 cent tax increase, which would be equivalent to the 5% cut. He stated the County would suffer with this. He then moved to accept the budget ordinance as previously presented with a 4.5 cent tax increase (for a tax rate of 83 cents). The motion was seconded by Commissioner Lockamy, and passed unanimously. (Copy of budget ordinance filed in Ordinance Book _____, Page _____)

Commissioner Kirby also moved that the County Manager look into/examine the possible effects of a business tax audit - the benefits, negatives and positives – and provide a presentation to the Board in January. This, he noted, would give the taxpayers the idea that the tax burden is fair on everyone. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Parker and passed on a vote of 4-1 (Commissioner McLamb voting nay).

The Chairman asked if Board members had comments with regard to the budget. Commissioner Lockamy expressed his appreciation to the citizens and employees for their attention and support; he thanked the staff and Board members for their hard work. He noted there was much work still to be done. Commissioner McLamb expressed his appreciation to the Board and staff. Commissioner Parker stated that through the deliberations and bickering, there were things misunderstood, but that was why there were five commissioners; they would not always agree, but it was good that they could come together to get a workable solution. He acknowledged that some ideas - such as the 5% cut - were difficult, but it was good to have Board members with a conscientious attitude regarding employees and their work ethic. He cautioned that they needed to ask themselves are we doing enough to make the County prosperous and one that everyone could be proud of, were there things that would be done in the agencies to curtail spending. He told the employees to lift up their heads and be encouraged. Commissioner Kirby thanked the Board for their deliberations, the County Manager and employees. He stated that the proposed 5% across-the-board cuts were a wakeup call. He hoped that this year's budget had taught them and they embraced what John F. Kennedy had espoused: ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country. He stated, ask not what Sampson County can do for you, but what you can do for Sampson County. He noted that there was a time coming, unless there was a drastic change in revenue streams, that the 5% cuts may become reality, and they may not have any choice. Chairman Strickland stated that this had been a great learning experience for all, that 5% is instead very much, and perhaps they should have known. He stated that in the attempt to do what they thought was right, mistakes were made, but there was a greater understanding. He noted that the Board was not home free, they had cut some places to the quick and they would have to work to put back funding in those areas. He thanked everyone for their work and tolerating what they had been through.

Upon a motion made by Commissioner McLamb and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to adjourn.

Jefferson B. Strickland, Chairman

Susan J. Holder, Clerk to the Board

SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

The Sampson County Board of Commissioners convened for a special budget work session at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, July 23, 2014 in County Auditorium, 435 Rowan Road, in Clinton North Carolina. Members present: Chairman Jefferson Strickland, Vice Chairman Jarvis McLamb, and Commissioners Albert D. Kirby, Jr., Billy Lockamy and Harry Parker.

Chairman Strickland convened the meeting and called upon Commissioner Kirby for the invocation. Commissioner Lockamy then led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Chairman Strickland called upon County Manager Ed Causey for an introduction to the day's process. Mr. Causey explained that at the Board's last budget work session on June 26th, they had adopted an interim budget ordinance for July and directed staff to prepare information on the effects of a 5% across-the-board cut, with these cuts to be on top of any previous cuts or changes made in previous budget work sessions. He recalled that the proposal on the table at that time had been revised from a 9 cent tax increase to a 5.25 cent tax increase. He noted that this was a reasonable approach, and staff had taken it seriously. He explained that he had met with all County department heads to establish their instructions for the development of their proposals, which were reviewed with department heads and funding partners by the Manager, Finance Office and Assistant County Manager over a period of two days. Each was asked to provide executive summaries no more than 1 ¹/₂ pages long, and explained that this was not an exercise, that if the Board wished to move forward with a proposal, he was prepared to aggressively implement it. The presenters were asked not to justify their existence, but to present a 5% reduction and its impact. Mr. Causey asked the Board to consider all of the proposals before they took any action as one department's proposal may have an impact on another. He noted that the proposed schedule - to move departments in and out generally within 15-30 minute presentations - was difficult but intended to allow the Board to complete their work in one full day.

Commissioner Kirby asked if the proposed 5% cuts were in permanent areas or in capital outlay or other operating costs, and Mr. Causey stated that departments had been instructed to limit their cuts to permanent cuts. He acknowledged that this became a challenge for some departments. He noted that there was proposed loss of personnel because of permanent cuts.

Commissioner Lockamy thanked the staff but stated that he thought this would interfere with the planned pay study, that they were trying to do too much at one time. Chairman Strickland apologized, but before the presentations offered a motion that the Board accept a budget at a tax increase of 4.5 cents (reduced from 5.25) as had been mentioned at a previous session. Commissioner Lockamy seconded the motion stating that he believed the pay study, which had been discussed for five years, was already in place. He noted the Board had built and enjoyed new buildings, schools and jail – too much, too fast, not seeing the economic times that were coming. He noted that by his calculation, the proposals would send 75 people home, which would be devastating. He stated that decisions needed to be well thought out rather than drastic cuts at this time. He acknowledged there would need to be changes in employee benefits in the future, and he hoped the pay study would bring that out. He stated the Board had to pay somehow for the services provided to their citizens. The Chairman cautioned that time was running out and made the proposal as an acceptable solution. The motion passed on a vote of 3-2 (with Commissioner Kirby and Parker voting nay).

Chairman Strickland noted that the Board would need to reconvene once a budget ordinance would be prepared, and staff noted that one could be prepared for a 6:00 p.m. meeting.

Commissioner Kirby stated that he just voted against a 4.5 cent tax increase because it was wrong because it would not resolve the problem; the Board would have to raise taxes again next year and the year after that. He stated the only way to get from behind would be permanent cuts. He stated the County was now where the federal government was 15-20 years ago; we are too big and spending too much money. He stated they were going to compromise the tax base in a way that would hurt the County. Chairman Strickland stated that no one disagreed, but that it needed to be planned. Commissioner Kirby stated he didn't hear departments offer one positive way to do cut backs, and that was needed. He agreed with Mr. Causey that they were one catastrophic event away from insolvency if they kept on. He noted in response to Commissioner Lockamy that the pay study may increase salary costs. Mr. Causey clarified that the study would probably recommend a significant pay increase for employees, but that the strategy to implement has always been to also look at a variety of options including caps on employment or reductions in permanent employment. Commissioner Kirby voiced concerns regarding the "blank check" the pay study implementation may cost, and stated the expenses for the buildings were there and could not be undone, but that they could cut back, even if it took services to do it.

Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to recess to reconvene at 6:00 p.m. that evening.

Reconvened Meeting

Chairman Strickland reconvened the meeting with all commissioners present at 6:00 p.m. in the County Auditorium. County Manager Ed Causey explained that a budget ordinance had been prepared pursuant to the Board's vote earlier that morning, with a 4.5 cent tax increase, taking $300,000 from contingency. Commissioner Lockamy moved that the budget ordinance be adopted as presented, and Commissioner Strickland seconded the motion.

Commissioner Kirby clarified that he thought that the County employees were the finest in the state. His position, he stated, was driven by the fact that he looked at the information presented to him by Finance and made a decision in the best interest of everybody. He stated they did not have the resources to do what was being proposed in his opinion. If they continued to put the burden on the taxpayers, the system would break. He acknowledged that he would not have voted for a 5% across-the-board cut; that was not the answer. The motion was called and passed 3-2, with Commissioners Lockamy, Parker and Strickland voting yes; Commissioners Kirby and McLamb voting nay.

Given the budget's adoption, the Chairman recognized Tax Administrator Jim Johnson, offered the annual settlement of taxes pursuant to General Statues. He reported that as of July 30, 2014, the outstanding balance of all delinquent taxes for FY 2013-2014 was $1,507,821.46, which included real property, personal property, motor vehicles, fire, school and municipal tax districts, penalties and advertising costs. He stated that compared to last year, the settlement was approximately $453,687.60 less than the previous fiscal year. The tax collection rate, he reported, had increased to 96.14%. He further reported that the Board must accept this settlement before charging him with collection of the next year's taxes. Commissioner Mclamb made a motion, which was seconded by Commissioner Lockamy to accept the settlement for FY 2013-2014 as presented, and charge the Tax Administrator with the collection of taxes for Fiscal Year 2014-2015. However, before the motion could be voted upon Commissioner Parker stated he did not understand the motion and vote on the previous matter with regard to the adoption of the budget at a 4.5 tax increase. He moved that the previous motion with regard to the adoption of the budget ordinance be reconsidered. County Attorney Joel Starling stated that a member of the majority voting members from the last motion could make a motion to reconsider that motion. Commissioner Kirby seconded the motion to reconsider the vote, and it passed on a vote of 3-2 (Commissioners Parker, Kirby and McLamb voting yes and Commissioners Lockamy and Strickland voting nay.)

Commissioner Lockamy moved that the FY 2014-15 budget ordinance be adopted as presented to implement the Board's vote previously that morning for a 4.5 cent tax increase, and Commissioner Strickland seconded the motion. The motion failed on a vote of 2-3 (Commissioner Lockamy and Strickland voting yes; Commissioners Parker, Kirby and McLamb voting nay). There was considerable discussion among the Board members with regard to the budget process to date, and the Board recessed briefly for the County Manager to confer with the Finance Officer and Assistant County Manager.

The Board reconvened after a brief recess, and County Manager Ed Causey stated he had no criticism for anything the Board members wanted to accomplish, but reminded the Board that the problem stemmed from the fact that a previous Board never fully implemented the full tax increase pledged to pay for the debt for school construction. He reviewed the manager's summary of the full impact of the 5% acrossthe-board cuts, including the loss of 75 employees to achieve only $758,817 in savings. This, he noted, would not solve the problem; the Board would have to eliminate departments and programs to get it down to the desired level. He stated that at some point in time, the Board had a solvency problem. At the end of the day, he stated, two things had to happen. The Board must realize they have one half billion dollars' worth of facilities they have to take care of, he stated, noting that the problems currently experienced with one of the Community College facilities would become a regular occurrence if something was not done. He stated there were not enough reductions that could be done alone, at some time there would have to be an increase in revenue, whether it was new industry, new sales taxes, or whatever. He cautioned that if the Board did not soon approve a budget, there would be an adverse effect with regard to the people who looked at the County from a financial viewpoint.

The Chairman called for the motion again to accept the budget ordinance as presented with the 4.5 cent increase. Commissioner Lockamy again made the motion, which was seconded by Chairman Strickland. It again failed on vote of 2-3, (Commissioner Lockamy and Strickland voting yes; Commissioners Parker, Kirby and McLamb voting nay). Given the Board's action, staff presented an interim budget ordinance for the month of August, 2014. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Strickland, the Board voted unanimously to adopt the interim budget ordinance. (Copy filed in Ordinance Book _____, Page _____)

Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the Board voted unanimously to recess to reconvene at 6:00 p.m. on Monday, July 28, 2014 for a budget work session.

Jefferson B. Strickland, Chairman

Susan J. Holder, Clerk to the Board

SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

The Sampson County Board of Commissioners convened for a budget work session at 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 26, 2014 in the County Administration Building Conference Room, 406 County Complex Road, in Clinton, North Carolina. There being a number of citizens present, Commissioner McLamb moved that the meeting recess to reconvene in the County Auditorium, 435 Rowan Road, in Clinton North Carolina. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Parker and passed unanimously. The Board reconvened in the County Auditorium with the following members present: Chairman Jefferson Strickland, Vice Chairman Jarvis McLamb, and Commissioners Albert D. Kirby, Jr., Billy Lockamy and Harry Parker.

Chairman Strickland convened the meeting and called upon Commissioner Parker for the invocation. The Chairman expressed condolences to County Manager Ed Causey on the loss of his father-in-law. Mr. Causey expressed his appreciation to the Board for accommodating his need to handle his family issues.

Commissioner Lockamy also voiced compliments to the Sampson County Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Chamber of Commerce and the Expo Center on The Great Race event held that day at the Expo Center.

The Chairman then began the budget deliberation process by noting that there is a public comment period available at regular Board meetings; however, if there was a budget issue that impacted a particular department, the department would be allowed to address the question. The Chairman then recalled that at the Board's previous work session, they had reduced the proposed budget from a 9 cent tax increase to 5.25 cents, but they did not have a motion to approve this budget for budget ordinance and therefore had recessed for additional discussions. He reminded the Board that a budget must be approved by June 30, or an interim budget ordinance would have to be adopted. He stated that doing that had certain drawbacks, such as delaying the County audit. He opened the floor for Board input.

Commissioner McLamb moved that the Board do a 5% cut on all departments. Commissioner Kirby asked for clarification on whether this meant permanent cuts or operating expenses, whether it was an across-the-board cut Commissioner McLamb was proposing. Commissioner McLamb clarified his motion was across-the-board permanent cuts in addition to cuts previously made. Commissioner Kirby asked Finance Officer David Clack if he knew how much money the cuts would generate, and Mr. Clack explained that he did not as County dollars supported departments by different percentages. Commissioner Kirby then seconded Commissioner McLamb's motion. The Chairman invited discussion on the motion, and the following comments were received:

Commissioner Kirby noted that this was a tough decision and that sometimes the county staff and public misunderstand. He stated that it was hard to tell a man or woman who wanted to get a raise or have been deserving one for years, that we are just not able to do it because of what Mr. Causey was saying during the last meeting. He stated that when Mr. Causey used the term solvency it was a red alert for him; they could no longer kick the can down the road and had to have permanent cuts. He pointed out that the cuts that are made now, the way they are made, it is kind of dangerous because they were cutting operating expenses and not getting down to the bottom. So it feels like cutting when you aren't really cutting anything at all. He noted the example of the $300,000 that was taken from DSS, stating when you really look at it, that wasn't really $300,000 taken away; if Ms. Bradshaw uses the funds in a way that does not touch her mandated funds, the Board will be paying for it anyway. They have to pay for those mandated funds. He stated that he understood everybody's desire, but used an analogy of when his mother gave him and his brother a bicycle. They saw this guy with a bigger and better bicycle, and they thought they should have one as good as his. They told their mom Santa Claus was not as good to us, but she just didn't have the money to buy that kind of bicycle. H stated that she wanted to, and he thought they deserved it, but the money just wasn't there. He stated that this was the they were facing.

Chairman Strickland noted that the majority of the cuts had not involved all departments. An additional 5% would be doubling up on some and would not be an equitable adjustment, he noted.

Commissioner Kirby stated that perhaps they should spread the burden, pick the ones up that haven't been hit. He added that when he first came on the Board there was discussion of a business tax audit and stated the time for the business tax audit had come.

Commissioner Lockamy noted that when they started deliberations he thought about 2% or 4% cuts, that some departments, such as EMS, could not stand a 5% cut. He stated he would have to see some numbers of what could be accumulated before he would be in favor of that.

Commissioner Parker noted that he used to work in the county as an employee, and cautioned that the Board should not forget the employees. No employees, no county government.

Sheriff Jimmy Thornton asked to be heard from the floor and asked if the 5% included salaries, and the Chairman noted it would be across-the-board. Sheriff

Thornton pointed out that close to 70-75% of all of budgets were salaries and benefits, only 25-30% at best goes toward all of the operating expenses. He stated that department heads would have to either cut salaries, or cut bodies. The pay study that had been approved would be out the window with this proposal, with this motion. He stated that he could not speak for any other department head, but he would have to cut positions before he could cut salaries.

The Chairman clarified that the motion would mean there would be no vehicles purchased, and Mr. Clack noted they would be excluded as a one-time expense, not a permanent cut. The Chairman noted that if $1.65 million were deducted, it would bring the budget back closer to where it was at the end of the current fiscal year. Mr. Clack noted that there were not the same revenues or expenditures anticipated in the proposed budget - i.e. more sales taxes and less current year property taxes. The Chairman asked about cutting the proposed $95,000 rescue vehicle, and Mr. Clack explained that this would only cut a third of the cost. The Chairman noted that reducing the vehicles would mean there would be additional vehicles wearing out at the same time and in need of replacement in future budgets. Commissioner Kirby noted that at the rate of expenses vs. revenue, even with the 9 cents increase and the 3.6 million, in about 3 years it still wouldn't matter, assuming there was no new revenue. Mr. Clack noted that certain expenses, such as utilities and gas, increase each year, and there would be the costs of implementation of the pay plan. Commissioner Kirby stated that this meant the only way to tackle the monster was permanent cuts. He reiterated the possibility of additional revenues from a business tax audit, and the Chairman noted potential revenues from an additional sales tax.

Commissioner Lockamy stated that before they started doing that type of drastic cutting, they should look closer to closing one or two departments completely down, maybe the libraries, or parks and recreation, instead of going straight across the board. He stated that the County had not generated enough money from the beginning when they built all of these buildings, and they had suffered ever since. The Board discussed whether across-the-board cuts would include debt service, and Mr. Clack cautioned that they could not reduce what they owe.

Chairman Strickland questioned if the Board were to look and see if there was another penny to be found to get the tax increase down to four and a quarter, would that be something that could be a substitute for an across the board cut. He noted an option would be to table the motion, and enter into an interim budget for 10 days or so.

County Manager Ed Causey complimented the board for the good discussion and saluted them from the standpoint that they were talking about long term solvency. He noted that $14 \frac{1}{2}$ -15% debt was on the high side but was acceptable at the time that the Board did it, and had the tax base been increasing 2-4% a year, as was the case when the financial model was developed, the County would not have the significant problem that they have now. He added that when they were talking about the expenses, they either have to increase revenue or decrease real expenditures. He also clarified that the pay study is not a give all to everybody. When the pay study was completed, it would clearly depict the salaries that the employees should be earning, based on a time and grade. He added that it had always been his expectation that at the time they received that information, they would determine what is needed to support that pay study - the numbers of employees they can support, and in time it would lead to the discussion of whether to increase emphasis on contracted services in order to save on the benefit side. He cautioned that if the Board was going to do an interim budget, it was going to take every department. They should allow each department head to sit with them and talk about the impacts and sustaining them. He stated the 5% reduction would result in a loss of personnel for many departments, because if they are paying an average of 70% to salaries and benefits, then reducing the cost of government and expenditures will reduce personnel.

Commissioner Kirby asked if the more preferable solution were to do it at the age of retirement, and Mr. Causey responded that there were going to be some hard decisions to be made if they were getting to that point, and ultimately he would look at it from a point of using contracted services to replace a lost service in order to replace the loss on the benefits side.

After continued discussion, Commissioner McLamb made a motion to table the previous motion, and Commissioner Kirby seconded it. Commissioner Kirby reiterated that the business tax audits did not have to be punishing anyone, but educating them.

The Board discussed potential dates to meet for further budget deliberations, and Mr. Causey noted that staff had prepared an interim budget ordinance for consideration. The Clerk noted that no vote had been taken on the motion to table. The vote was taken, and passed unanimously.

Commissioner Kirby moved that the interim budget for the month of July be adopted. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Parker, and passed unanimously. (Copy filed in Ordinance Book _____.)

Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner McLamb, the Board adjourned.

Jefferson B. Strickland, Chairman

Susan J. Holder, Clerk to the Board

SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

The Sampson County Board of Commissioners convened for a budget work session at 5:00 p.m. on Monday, June 23, 2014 in the County Administration Building Conference Room, 406 County Complex Road, in Clinton, North Carolina. The following members present: Chairman Jefferson Strickland, Vice Chairman Jarvis McLamb, and Commissioners Albert D. Kirby, Jr., Billy Lockamy and Harry Parker.

Chairman Strickland convened the meeting and called upon Commissioner Parker for the invocation. Chairman Strickland informed the Board that Katie Melvin, wife of former commissioner Johnny Melvin had passed away. He also reported that the County Manager's father-in-law had passed away over the weekend. The Chairman noted that he had received some calls, and there was some misunderstanding regarding the cost of a pay study. The Board discussed the difference in budgeting a portion of the implementation costs, not the study itself. The Chairman noted that he had some time ago discussed with Finance Officer David Clack regarding the potential refinancing of interest rates. He noted the potential savings of $2.0 million over the remaining period of the financing (some water debt and some regarding county buildings and not extending the financing), but the Board would need to avoid an interim budget; it was important that the budget be adopted by June 30th.

Mr. Clack provided a recap on what the Board had done to date with regard to the budget, reductions of 1.87 cents from proposed 9 cent tax increase, based upon what a penny generated at the current tax rate. The Chairman stated he had also asked Mr. Clack to review the revenue side, and Mr. Clack reviewed potential revenue adjustments in the amount of .65 cents on the tax rate. Mr. Clack also presented, at the Chairman's request, additional reductions in the transfer of funds to Social Services of $330,000, noting that this could result in a total cut to DSS of $660,00 - $990,000 (depending on whether the program was at a 50% or 25% reimbursement rate). He noted that certain services would have to be provided regardless of what is cut, and mentioned the reductions in State reimbursements that had led to previously proposed increases in County contributions. He cautioned that if demand led to services being provided (i.e. foster care), the Board may have to come back to contingency to fund the costs. Mr. Causey noted that the DSS budget was cut last year; if expenditures were occurred in overtime, for example, the costs would have to be paid. Mr. Clack also reviewed the possibility of reducing the transfer to the water district of $26,600, a reduction to Parks and Recreation capital outlay in the amount of $36,500 and a reduction of legal fees. These reductions totaled $403,100, or a little over a penny on the proposed tax rate increase, for a proposed increase of 5.33 cents.

Commissioner Lockamy moved that the adjustments be accepted as presented. Commissioner McLamb seconded the motion. The Chairman asked the Board to allow department heads to speak on their budget issues.

DSS Director Sarah Bradshaw voiced her concerns regarding the proposed reductions in County dollars to DSS as they were on top of a previous $145,000 cuts made in the recommended budget. She stated that this had her department already exhausting several line items by Christmas. She noted that her staff had already done over 6,000 hours of overtime, and they were utilizing 23 temporary staff. She stated she did not think it was possible to last through the year and cut staff, which was the only way to yield a million dollars to result in cuts of $330,000 in county dollars. She pointed out the significant increases tracking for foster care in surrounding counties. She cautioned there were mandated services that had to be provided regardless, and she had a stressed department, losing employees, providing core services.

The motion was called and passed on a vote of 4-1 (Commissioner Kirby failing to vote without being excused counting as an affirmative vote; Commissioner Parker voting against).

Commissioner Lockamy moved that three of the replacement vehicles proposed for the Sheriff's Department be cut from the budget. The motion was seconded by Chairman Strickland. The Sheriff was asked about the cuts, and he stated he would work with the Board any way he could; he would like to determine which three were best to cut. Commissioner Parker asked about the policies with regard to deputies driving vehicles home out of the County. The Sheriff explained that at one point up until last year, the policy was that every deputy had to live in the County. He stated that with turnover and the hardship it was placing on the existing deputies, there are some now who live out of County. Prior to the change in policy, he noted, they were driving to the County line and picked up the County vehicle. In order to keep good people, he stated that he now allows them to drive the vehicles home, which if they looked across the County they would see law enforcement vehicles from many other areas. He added that it was alarming and a shame that the County could not pay people competitively so they have to go outside the County to seek jobs.

The motion was called and passed 3-2 (Commissioners Kirby and Parker voting nay). A citizen spoke questioning the benefit of reducing the law enforcement vehicles and deputies when the crime rate was increasing.

The Chairman noted this change would now would equate to a budget reduction from a 9-cent tax increase to 5.25 cents. The Chairman asked if the Board would entertain a motion to direct staff to prepare a budget ordinance with the proposed changes and a 5.25 cent tax increase. He also noted that there were a number of people were interested in doing something about the future of Parks and Recreation. He suggested appointing a committee (after budget) of at least two commissioners to discuss options for the future of County Parks and Recreation, including authorizing the County Manager to discuss with the City Manager the possibility of merger and with others out in the County with regard to other possible directions.

In response to commissioners' questions, Mr. Causey noted that the actions recommended were basically deferrals of expenses, not reductions. He reiterated the need to fully fund the capital reserve accounts and dealing with the needs of the County's human infrastructure. He expressed concerns regarding the level of fund balance, especially without a capital reserve, and the level of cuts to Social Services, given past cuts. He expressed concerns about the solvency of the County and the ability of the County to meet all of their objectives. Commissioner Lockamy asked about refinancing, and Mr. Clack expressed that the majority of the benefit of the savings would be to the Water Department and would not have a significant bearing on the tax rate. The largest portion of the debt – the COPs funding – could not be refinanced until at least 2017. Mr. Clack reminded the Board that the process included approvals from the Local Government Commission and negotiating with the bond rating and insurance agencies, who will look at the County's finances including fund balance and the reoccurrence of interim budgets.

There being no motion forthcoming from the Board or any suggestions from Board members, the Chairman called for a thirty minute recess. After a recess for dinner, the Board returned to the meeting room. With no action forthcoming from the Board for the evening, Commissioner McLamb moved that the Board recess to reconvene on Thursday, June 26, 2014 at 5:00 p.m. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Parker. The Manager asked if the Board wished staff to prepare an interim budget in case the Board could not reach a consensus, and the Board directed it be done just in case. The motion to recess passed unanimously.

Jefferson B. Strickland, Chairman

Susan J. Holder, Clerk to the Board

SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

The Sampson County Board of Commissioners convened at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, June 16, 2014, in the County Auditorium, 435 Rowan Road, Clinton North Carolina. Members present: Chairman Jefferson Strickland, Vice Chairman Jarvis McLamb, and Commissioners Albert Kirby, Billy Lockamy and Harry Parker.

Commissioner Harry Parker provided an invocation, and County Attorney Joel Starling explained the statutory provisions for a budget public hearing. It was requested that those present limit their remarks to matters dealing with the FY 2014-2015 budget, and that they observe the time limitation imposed by the Board.

Chairman Strickland opened the hearing, and the following comments were received:

Eric Bracy, Superintendent/Sampson County Schools: On August 25, 2014, our first day of school next year, we will welcome a brand new group of kindergarten students which will be the Class of 2027. We will say to these students that we plan to prepare them to be productive citizens when they leave our schools. We will say to their parents that we will do everything in our power to give these boys and girls the best education possible within the resources that we are given. We need every dollar we can get from our county, state and federal sources, as well as grants. We are facing cuts at the state level. One of the cuts we are facing is a $273,000 cut in our low wealth funding, and we are serious in our commitment to using our funds in the most effective and efficient manner as possible because we know how hard our citizens have worked to provide these funds. So, thank you to the County Manager for recommending additional funds that totaled $354,000 for Sampson County Schools. These additional resources will bring our per pupil figure to $900 per student, still far below the state average. School boards and superintendents across the state are in turmoil over our budgets, because we have no idea what cuts will be made at the state level. We are going to do our best to make preparations to operate our budget given the unknowns that we have. We need your support. I respectfully ask that you consider providing the $354,000 that Mr. Causey has recommended so we can move forward knowing what support financially that we have for our County. Our Finance Officer, our Board Chair, they will work with you and the County Manager any way we can to ensure that these funds will be used to support those students who will start school in August who are counting on us to keep them foremost in our minds for decisions that impact their future. I respectfully ask that you give consideration to the $354,000 that Mr. Causey recommended. Thank you for supporting Sampson County Schools.

Don Raines, Candidate for State Senate: I am here tonight to introduce myself. I am running for the State Senate. I am from Johnston County; I have been Mayor of Princeton for 12 years. Your job tonight is a difficult job, and I respect your responsibilities tonight. Running for State Senate, my biggest responsibility will be for public education. [Chairman Strickland interrupted, reminding Mr. Raines that the comments should be limited to those related to the proposed budget.] In running for the legislature, the lottery money should be going to school systems to build schools and health and technology. With that, your budget stress would be a lot less.

Tracy Kirkland, Student Government President/Sampson Community College: I am a late bloomer. I went back to school about two years ago. I attend Sampson Community College; I am their Student Government President. We have an Activities Center right now that we are unable to utilize because of the condition that it is in. It still needs significant repairs to it, and that directly effects our students. This past year, we established a Drama Club that would love to be able to use that to put on productions and performances that they can't do right now. We're using the cafeteria area with the stage. Anything that you can do for the College is greatly appreciated by not only myself and the students, but the staff and faculty as well. We have an incredible college that puts amazing students through. Many of you have had children or grandchildren attend, and you've seen what they've done. There's a win/win in that the students that attend the College when they attend the College and they come back into the community, they give back to the community. Many of you may have attended the College as well. We have incredible faculty that helps these students get through. What you all do makes a difference. If that College was not there, I would not have gone back to school because it would not have been conducive for me to step into a four-year college after having been out of school for a lot of years. I appreciate what you do. I know you have an incredible task in establishing a budget for a County. I am hopeful that you will see the needs the College does have and will help us to meet those needs and get some of those, the facility especially, up and running so that we can use that so it does not sit stale.

Ann Knowles, Veterans Services Director: Your Veterans Office is one of the best in the State; I would put it against any veterans office in the nation. We do it with a whole lot less than most. Our budget is to the bone. I do not know of anything that you can cut but your Veterans Program that you gave us a few years ago and the veterans enjoy so much. I beg you do not cut into our budget because it is a bare bones budget. If I need equipment, I have to go to the Finance Office. The Board of Elections, I saw in the paper that you are looking at maybe not financing the equipment. It would be a very huge mistake, because then we are really going to be coming for money when we have to replace this equipment. I beg you to put some money aside for that because we have no options in what the State does. The State says the equipment is outdated and you have to change it, then you've got to change it. The most important thing I have to talk about is the pay study. You have made strides in granting us to start this part. Keep on with it.

You have all these employees who want to be career employees. They don't want to come here for a few years and then go to Cumberland County or somewhere else. We have to continue that pay study and not stop it, or not implement it. That would be a bad thing for our morale.

Don Myers, Turkey NC: I am sure every year the department heads come before this board and they give very good reasons why they should have more money, and they do have some good reasons, but there is a time to budget accordingly. My daughter and I went out and bought a car, identical, in the same year, with the same mileage. She lives in one county, and I live in Sampson County, and I'm paying 40% more taxes on my car than she is. At 78 cents, it is one of the highest counties of the 100 now, we are in the top 10 or 15 I feel certain. I'm sure that the County Manager asked for 9 cents hoping they'd get 3 cents or 7 cents. I'm for zero. I want this board to just tighten its belt and go on population, if you have you more population growth. I know that when population grows, the finances is increased because they have to have a place to stay, you can raise it according to inflation. I just want to let you know that I think the tax rate in this county when they can find another county with almost half the rate. It's just discouraging to me.

Ken Smith, Carolina Avenue/Clinton NC: I have had the unique opportunity to speak with a many residents who could not come here tonight. One of the residents, who lives over in Newton Grove, has asked me not to give his last name, but I'll just call him Billy. He is an elderly man who has worked all of his life and one thing that concerns him is one of the American dreams is to own a home, and one thing he has recently told me is that now with property taxes going up he doesn't know exactly how he is going to pay for it. He's retired; he's worked hard. Yes, there are services that are needed, but we need to think about people like him. Also, there's a young lady that lives up near the Turkey community, trying to raise three children. She's a renter. She said, I guess it doesn't matter than they are going to raise property taxes because I'm renting, but then she found out that the person that she's renting from has told her that he's got to pay for this tax somehow, so your rent is going up. I know you have cut, I imagine that you've not cut to the bone. I'm not asking you to make Sampson County weakened by our tax cuts, but what I am saying is that big government is not the solution. I want to encourage commissioners to keep doing the positive job you're doing, but also what to ask you to think about the people who are not receiving any type of increases in their salaries, these are the people who are going to have to pay those taxes, those people who I have mentioned and those who are going to struggle. I don't think putting an extra burden is the right direction for us in Sampson County to go in.

Michael Warren, Sampson County Information Technology: I don't think what well tell you is resonating with you. You are not only causing undue stress continuing cuts, you are also causing undue stress at home with money. Within $100, I'm making the same thing I was making 10 years ago. I think, Mr. Billy, if they offered you more for your insurance rates or for your hogs, you aren't going to turn it down. Mr. Jarvis made his money farming. If he could get more for his product, he's not going to turn it down. I've bought cars from Mr. Jefferson; if he could make $100 more, why not make $100 more. Mr. Kirby, I'm sure his rates have gone up over the last ten years. Mr. Harry, when the County offered you money, did you turn it down? I'm at a tilting point. I have to make a choice, either lose convenience of being at home or going out of town. You've pushed me to the point I've got no other choice but to go out of town because I cannot make ends meet. When I started with the County, gas was $1.80 per gallon; it's $3.47 today. Groceries have tripled. I think you need to think about your county employees more. I know we have all these taxpayers, and we have to look out for the biggest population, but still if you work for the County, you've got to make ends meet or you'll have to look something else to do. If I have to work two jobs, I'm better off to find one job out of town, so I'm not gone all the time.

Paul Hutchins, President/Sampson Community College: I want to thank Ed Causey for his recommendations to you for Sampson Community College. Last week at your meeting, you cut $130,000 out of our budget. I stand here tonight not to argue with you or complain, I understand why you are doing that. But, I really want to stress to you tonight that the remaining funds that Mr. Causey has in the budget are critical. We have a building on our campus is not only used by the college, it's used by the community. We need to get that building back where we can use it. The other funds in the budget are to help cover the continuing increases that we face, whether it be insurance, fuel cost, etc., in our operating budget. I have been in Sampson County now for two years. I have been impressed by the people in the Sampson County community. The people in this County have one institution of higher learning, and it is Sampson Community College. I don't want us to have a mediocre community college. I want us to have one of the best community colleges in the State, but we need your support to do that. We have buildings that need attention, and we need your support to do that. I'm proud to work at Sampson Community College. We have a tremendous faculty and staff. We have a great Board of Trustees, and we provide an opportunity for people regardless of their preparation, whether they come to us needing their GED, or developmental classes to be able to move on to college level course work. We prepare the workforce of Sampson County. What we do at Sampson Community College is important. I hope you'll recognize that. I hope you'll support us in the budget. Please do all that you can do to help Sampson Community College.

Sandra Carroll, Trustee/Sampson Community College: Thank you for appointing me to the Sampson Community College Board of Trustees. It has been an honor to serve them and to serve you. I don't want my property tax raised, but I do stand behind Sampson Community College. It gives a lot of young people an opportunity to get an education that otherwise couldn't. First and foremost in my mind is my grandson, who has been raised by his dad, who cannot afford to send him to a four-year college just yet. He's going to Sampson Community next year. Not only that, a lot of older people have gone back to school. It's the only school we have here. Dr. Hutchins is doing a great job; the Board of Trustees is doing a great job. If at any point you can support us, I would great appreciate it.

Gail Adams: I am a retiree. I am here representing the senior citizens of Sampson County. They are some of your best, valued assets. With your new County tax rate, senior citizens cannot afford it. Regular employees cannot afford it. Because if you don't get pay raises, and trying living off of Social Security with a COLA increase that Medicaid or Medicare eats up. My husband and I both have medical problems. I love Sampson County; I was born and raised here. I worked here all my life, from the farm, to the telephone company to the Clerk of Courts Office. Increase the sales taxes, not the property taxes. We need some tax increase, I know that, but as high as you're recommending? I'm sorry, that will not keep my boat afloat. Sampson is already in the top 15 percent of the state's 100 counties in property tax rates.

Susan Heath, Sampson County Tax Office: What we need is to raise our tax base. That's the only way to generate more income. To do that, we think, as a Tax Office, we should do more business personal audits. There's tons of equipment out in this county and tons of things going on with businesses that are not listed and are never checked up on. I don't see the point of never bringing in a depreciation schedule from every business who files a business personal audit. I read in the Sampson Weekly about the possibility of cutting out spousal insurance. It is terrible. You would have so many people quitting. I would quit my job. I'm not going to stick around for 30 years to not get to a medium income salary. I will be gone, and half the people in my office would be gone. Think about us as employees. I am one of 600, but I am also one of 10,000 who pay taxes every year in the County. Insurance is the only thing going for us. If you cut it, you are cutting out a lot of employees. For many, that is the only reason we are still doing this job. We already lost from 90/10 to 80/20. I don't have a problem as an employee paying a little extra for myself, but you cannot start cutting out people's spouses [coverage]. You really do need to consider a tax audit for business personal property. There's way too much property that's not being listed. Every so many years, the tax depreciation schedule should be a mandatory thing.

William Peterson, Snow Hill: I think the people in Snow Hill have suffered enough without taxes being raised. The landfill was dumped in our backyard. Our homes have been deteriorating. We had a deal from the first time the landfill come, that deal only lasted for five years. If you sold your house at fair market value, and you didn't get the right amount, the landfill would pay you the balance of what you did not get. That's not been done. I came from California hoping life would be better. Guess what, it isn't. We have garbage trucks starting up in the morning and going in the afternoon. We have not been blessed like some of the part of the County. I'm pleading with you. My tax on my house is way too much. It's hard to pay (property taxes) now, but if they go up I'm going to have to move back to California. I'd hate to because this is my home. I'm pleading with you to give us a break — not just the people in Snowhill, but the people across the county my age. I'm close to 80 years old now. I don't know how long I'm going to live, but I'd sure like to live a little bit longer without worrying about paying my taxes.

G. H. Wilson, Sampson County School Board: We need all we can get. I am a business owner; I know what it takes to run a business. We have 1400 employees; we have 19 school buildings we have to look after. It's a tremendous amount of expenditure. I thank you for what you have done. If you can keep the $354,000 as the Superintendent asked, I thank you.

Willie Jacobs, Trustee/Sampson Community College: I ask you to do all you can for Sampson Community College. Some of you know the situation we go through each and every year because you have served as trustees. You know what the College goes through to keep things running in order. Thank you for support that you have given us in the past. Thank the County Manager for his support. Just ask you when you get out the scissors, please don't go too deep in Sampson Community College's category.

Don Myers: We have heard a lot from people who have their hand out; they benefit from it. I'd like to hear a lot more from those who pay in the taxes who really don't get a lot of benefits from the County, yet their taxes keep going up. I would love to see this Board hold the line on taxes this year.

John Swope, Economic Developer: By and large, County departments are not seeking increases in their budgets. There are examples where they are losing State or federal funding or where mandates are requiring services that are going to cost more money. Across the board, departments are not asking for any more money. As a matter of fact, the Economic Development Commission over the last ten years, has been cut 39.4%. I believe if you looked at most other departments, they have been cut by similar amounts. The County commissioners have done a great job over the last ten years being good stewards of the public's funds because there have been pretty good cuts. Also noted that if you looked at what County employees have received in increases over the last ten years, they are on fixed incomes too. When's the last time Sampson County had a tax increase? It's probably been five or six years. Don't like tax increases, but occasionally you have to have them; goods and services go up, all the County's costs go up.

Ann Knowles: I'd like to make sure that everyone understands that we as County employees are taxpayers. We don't have our hand out wanting our County to give us. We just want fair pay.

Jane Robinson, Sampson County Tax Office: I have been through three pay studies; none of them have been implemented at the Tax Office. If you think back whenever you built the Jail and the schools were built, it was put in the paper there would be a 30 cent tax hike in ten years to pay off the loans because you had to have schools and you had to have a jail. The County employees cannot bear the burden of paying off taxes.

Heather Bonney, Library Director: Last year, I was asked to look at my budget, just like the year before. Five years, ago I voluntarily gave up my Assistant Director. I said we didn't need middle management; we needed more people on the floor. I am constantly looking to see how we can use the space that we've got in order to do more with what we've got. Two years ago, I was cut a little from the state, and last year, cut a little more from the state. Since I took over, we gone from $142,000 being funded from the state to this year $115,000, and now they are talking about another 2-3% cut. Last year, I said let's look at another way of serving outreach, let's look at another way of serving elderly and the bookmobile, let's look at another way of serving everybody with what we've got. I can't speak for other departments, but I do know that I had to look six people in the eye last year and tell them they had to go home to cut $70,000 out of my budget. I wasn't going to get up and talk today, but I think you can see that my department has gone from $900,000 to well below $800,000. I've donated my left leg. I would hope I can keep my right one and limp along until we begin to see an upturn. The library serves the veterans. The schools that are taking these cuts – they don't have book budgets for their school libraries – these teachers come to us and are begging us for books. My library supports the community college, every single student in the County; we are the only free public computers in the County. I had 85 people sign up for library cards this past week alone. My point is my people serve from 0 to 105. I would just respectfully request my department be excused from deliberations this year.

There being no further comments, the hearing was closed.

The Chairman asked if the members wished to recess for further budget deliberations that evening or schedule another date for budget work sessions. Commissioner Kirby moved that Mr. Causey present the Board with alternative budgets, one budget with no tax increase at all, and another budget with a three cent tax increase. He stated that he was using that as a go-by; he would like to know, in Mr. Causey's experience, exactly how bad it would be. He was saying he wanted to look at the numbers, and was not saying he would vote one way or the other.

Mr. Causey stated that since Commissioner Kirby had deferred to his expertise, he could tell him that if you've got about a $3 million deficit and you want to make any serious reductions in county government, assuming County employees were paid an average of $40,00-$50,000, he was essentially going to send vast numbers of people home.

Commissioner Parker seconded the motion. Commissioner Lockamy voiced his opinion that at this point it time the Board was close to finishing the budget and could discuss it themselves. He stated they did not have time to consider two additional budgets. If that needed to have been done, it should have been done earlier. Commissioner Kirby disagreed, stating that he did not think the Board was close at all, they needed to look at a closer amount to where they were last year. Chairman Strickland commented that the Board was too far down the road, and to change the process would not be in the best interest of the County government for the coming year.

At this point, Commissioner McLamb asked to be able to ask the audience a question. Commissioners Kirby/Parker agreed to withdraw their motions so that the Board could go back into public hearing. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to reopen the hearing.

Commissioner McLamb asked the audience how many of them by show of hands thought that the County should continue or discontinue County Parks and Recreation. There was some confusion over whether the question was to continue it in the form it currently existed, or in another form, or in collaboration with the City. The hearing was then again closed.

Discussions resumed on the budget, and Commissioner Kirby re-stated his previous motion, which was again seconded by Commissioner Parker. Commissioner Kirby stated that he had sat on the Board almost five years and had complained about the high property taxes in Sampson County and its spending.

Mr. Causey stated that he would explain his position, and if the Board still wished to proceed, then he would respectfully request a Closed Session. He stated that the thing he struggled with is that he had been here for the last four years, and the Board talked about waste in government, but he never heard any specific recommendations. He stated that he had sat with the Board the entire year after informing the Board in last year's budget message that the County had a significant deficit and unless the board showed where it wanted to reduce expenditures they were going to have a significant tax increase. He stated that we talk about waste, but nobody would offer concrete ideas as to where to find waste. He stated the Board had cut the budget as far as they could dollars and cents, and they could reduce budgets, determine how many employees they could pay for, and go to sending employees home. He stated he didn't think he could do that and leave government at a reduced level and still operate and provide the services the Board would find acceptable. To do the two budgets would turn the group upside down and was a futile exercise. He reiterated that staff went into the budget with essentially no direction. Meetings were held to allow departments to make presentations, and at the beginning of each meeting, the Board was asked if there were decisions to make. Since there were none, staff assumed they had tacit approval of the budget. He noted that staff had shown the Board the impact of state and federal actions and what the capital reserve was doing, to show the Board where they were in the budget, and now the Board was requesting he prepare a zero tax increase budget – he did not have the ability to do that. He cautioned to do a zero tax increase budget, should he do that, would not solve the problem. Until a capital reserve was established to maintain a half billion dollars' worth of buildings on an annual basis, he stated, a zero budget would bury them in the next two to three years. If the Board wanted a zero budget, they would have to accept reduced services, and probably have to send a third of their workforce home. Based upon their previous deliberations, he did not think the Board was willing to do that.

Commissioner Kirby stated that Mr. Causey had heard his position for the last four years. He stated that when you have $500,000 on a building that is not leaking and million dollar computer systems that were not bid out, he was suspicious about whether or not there was waste in this government. Yes, he added, he was depending on Mr. Causey's expertise, not to come up with some flippant answer but put forth his best effort to see where he would make cuts. If he thought people would be going home, then he wanted to see that on paper. He stated there had been a tax increase his first year on the Board he voted against, and a tax increase the second year he voted against. He stated he had and would vote against every tax increase as long as he thought there was waste in government. There had to be some effort, he stated. If Mr. Causey showed him some instance where County government would have to shut down, then he wanted to see how bad it would be.

Mr. Causey responded that his answers were not flippant. He offered straightforward answers. He noted that Commissioner Kirby stated he had great expertise when he gave him the answers he wanted, but if he didn't agree then he was flippant. He reiterated that he had sat with the Board for four years, but he could not identify what Commissioner Kirby had identified as waste; superlative terms about waste do not help. He thought that the Board would have gotten rid of waste when they went through the budgets for the past four years. He noted that the Board themselves could not agree, and it would be difficult for him to provide something that they all would agree on.

Chairman Strickland noted there were several factors that made this budget more difficult than others, including less tax revenues than the current budget. The Vice Chairman asked if the Manager had time to do what was asked in the motion, and Mr. Causey stated that if the Board voted to do it, he would not be the Manager. It was an outrageous request that would create a devastating impact on the County. He could not responsibly do that. Commissioner McLamb stated he had heard the commissioners offer very few cuts, and Mr. Causey stated if the Board could not come up with the cuts, how did they expect him to come up with cuts they could agree on? Commissioner Lockamy noted they had already cut the budget by $1.5 million, and perhaps others could be made. Commissioner McLamb questioned who would know what could be saved if deputies did not drive their vehicles home, and Mr. Clack stated the Sheriff' Office would have to provide that. The question was called on the motion that the Manager be asked to do two alternate budgets, one with a zero tax increase and one with a 3-cent tax increase. The motion passed 3-2 (Commissioners Kirby, Parker voting yes, McLamb failing to vote without being excused, which counted as an affirmative vote; Commissioners Lockamy and Strickland voting nay).

Mr. Causey stated that such vote had confirmed his resignation. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the Board voted unanimously to go into Closed Session. The Board then returned to the Auditorium and returned to open session upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy, seconded by Commissioner Kirby, and a unanimous vote.

Commissioner Kirby made a motion to reconsider the previous motion with regard to directions to the County Manager and that the Board have conversations with Mr. Causey and Mr. Clack regarding budget questions prior to meeting further on the budget. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Parker and passed unanimously. Mr. Causey commented that the Board had shown great forbearance in their discussions, and he appreciated their gentlemanly spirit. He stated that his telling the Board in open session that he was going to resign was inappropriate and unprofessional and should not have occurred that way. However, he added, much of what was said was heartfelt because he was genuinely interested in the County and the citizens thereof. He stated that he had no question that everyone sitting up at the table had the same objective - to come up with a solution to benefit all people. He reiterated that when a County Manager is working for the Board at the same time the Board should have confidence in that Manager. At any time the Board thinks someone else could best represent their interests, they should assert that authority, he stated, and he respected the authority of the Board and the decisions they make. To anyone he created emotional distress in the past thirty minutes, he apologized. He noted he had to be sensitive to the political atmosphere, but at the same time he had to maintain the management side of what is the long term interest and make sure that when he is presenting those cases, he does it in the most effective and professional manner possible. Mr. Causey specifically apologized to Commissioner Kirby if he had said anything he found offensive.

Commissioner Kirby apologized to Mr. Causey and noted that the Board was in a tough situation and the Manager's position was difficult.

The Chairman asked for a vote of confidence in the County Manager. The Board was unanimously in their vote. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Parker and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to recess to reconvene at 5:00 p.m. on Monday, June 23, 2014 in the County Administration Building Conference Room.

Roads

Monthly Report - NCDOT District Engineer Keith Eason was present to address questions or concerns from the Board or citizens in attendance. There were no comments.

Item 1: Planning and Zoning Items

TA-4-14-1 The Chairman opened the hearing and recognized Planning Director Mary Rose who reviewed the request to amend Section 12 of the Sampson County Zoning Ordinance with regard to Definitions and Word Interpretations to delete the section's reference to facilities with a generation capacity of more than 10 megawatts, as unanimously recommended by the Planning Board. Ms. Rose explained that the goal was to allow for smaller quantities of power to be generated under this same definition. Commissioner Kirby asked if this pertained to solar farms, and Ms. Rose explained that there were provisions even more specific to them. She explained that this would take care of an industry such as NOVI, a renewable energy facility that would generate less than 10,000 megawatts. Commissioner Kirby asked if this were being amended to accommodate new business. The floor was opened for comments, and none were received. The hearing was closed. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the Board voted unanimously to approve the text amendment TA-4-14-1 as follows:

Renewable Energy Facility: A facility, other than a hydroelectric power facility with a generation capacity of more than 10 megawatts, that either:

- A. Generates electric power by the use of a renewable energy resource.
- B. Generates useful, measurable combined heat and power derived from a renewable energy resource.
- C. Is a solar thermal energy facility. (ZA-6-08-1)

RZ-5-14-1 The Chairman opened the hearing and recognized Planning Director Mary Rose who reviewed the request to rezone approximately 1 acre located at 481 Delway Highway from RA-Residential Agriculture to C-Commercial. She reviewed the findings of fact and noted that all adjoining property owners had been duly notified and the property posted, and this request was unanimously recommended by the Planning Board. Commissioner Kirby asked if it were in proximity to an existing commercial development, and Ms. Rose stated yes. The floor was opened for comments, and none were offered. The hearing was closed. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner McLamb, the Board voted unanimously to approve rezoning request RZ-5-14-1, accepting the presented findings of fact and making the following zoning consistency statement: Whereas, in accordance with the provisions of North Carolina General Statute 153A-341, the Sampson County Board of Commissioners does hereby find and determine that the recommendation of the ordinance amendment RZ-5-14-1 is consistent with the goals and objectives of the Sampson County Land Use Plan and other long range planning documents due to the fact this property is located in close proximity to existing commercial development.

RZ-5-14-2 The Chairman opened the hearing and recognized Planning Director Mary Rose who reviewed the request to rezone approximately 1.01 acres located along Charles Newland Road from MRD-Mixed Residential to RA-Residential Agriculture. She reviewed the findings of fact and noted that all adjoining property owners had been duly notified and the property posted, and the request was unanimously recommended by the Planning Board. The floor was opened for comments, and none were offered. The hearing was closed. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Parker and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to approve rezoning request RZ-5-14-2, accepting the presented findings of fact and making the following zoning consistency statement: Whereas, in accordance with the provisions of North Carolina General Statute 153A-341, the Sampson County Board of Commissioners does hereby find and determine that the recommendation of the ordinance amendment RZ-5-14-2 is consistent with the goals and objectives of the Sampson County Land Use Plan for residential growth due to the fact this property is located within a portion of the County designated as a Residential Growth Area in Section 2 of the Sampson County Land Use Plan (Future Use Map). This section further identifies appropriate uses for this area would include primarily residential development.

RZ-5-14-3 This hearing was not held because owner withdrew application.

RZ-5-14-4 The Chairman opened the hearing and recognized Planning Director Mary Rose who reviewed the request to rezone approximately 79.36 acres located at 75 Runion Lane from RA-Residential Agriculture to I-Industrial. She explained that the Planning Board had recommended denial of the rezoning request after hearing Planning staff information and comments provided by adjoining landowners (which have been provided as part of the Planning Board minutes); however the Planning Board did not offer findings of fact for denial nor a zoning consistency statement. She noted that the property owner had requested that the hearing be continued until July and suggested that because of the Planning Board's omission, the Board may wish to remand this rezoning request back to the Planning Board. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the Board continued the hearing and remanded the item back to the Planning Board for reconsideration.

Item 2: Recognitions and Reports

Recognition of Retirees The Board presented plaques to retirees Lark Thornton and Candace Atwood.

Item 3: Action Items

Public Hearing - Identification of Needs, Small Cities Community Development Block Grant Program (CDBG) for Economic Development Projects The Chairman opened the hearing and called on consultant Skip Green who explained that the County was interested seeking funds from the State's Small Cities Community Development Block Grant Program (CDBG) and thus was holding the first of two required public hearings. He noted that the CDBG program is administered by the North Carolina Department of Commerce and the North Carolina Department of Environment and Natural Resources and that the CDBG Program permits grant funds to be used toward infrastructure projects that address health/safety needs (public water and sewer projects) or support Economic Development (public infrastructure) projects. He explained that applications for Economic Development must show that in excess of 60% of CDBG funds will benefit low or moderate-income persons through job creation or retention. Applications for other CDBG programs must show that funded activities: (1) will provide greater than a 50% benefit to low or moderate income persons; or (2) benefit identified special need populations; or (3) address health and safety needs. The floor was opened for comments, and none were received. The hearing was closed, and no action was requested at this time.

Commissioner Kirby asked the Board to consider two additional items:

Proclamation Honoring NC Theological Seminary Commissioner Kirby stated that he had the opportunity to attend the first graduation of the NC Theological Seminary. He read the proclamation and asked the Board to adopt it. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner Lockamy, the Board voted unanimously to adopt the proclamation. (Copy filed in Inc. Minute Book _____, Page ____.)

Courthouse Parking Commissioner Kirby moved that one of the parking spaces at the Courthouse be designated for use by the Board of Commissioners, presenting a picture (Exhibit A attached) for location. Commissioner McLamb seconded the motion. The Chairman stated that he thought more time was needed for consideration since the request was just being brought before the Board, and Commissioner Kirby stated he was not prepared to withdraw his motion. County Attorney Joel Starling confirmed that the motion could be brought for consideration at a regular meeting of the Board despite not being noted on the published agenda. Commissioner Lockamy stated that he did not think it was necessary; he had never needed to park around the Courthouse and the Courthouse was pushed for parking anyway. Commissioner Parker stated that extenuating circumstances must have occurred for this to come up and a lot of Courthouses in different counties have such provisions for County commissioners. Commissioner McLamb stated that if there were places for judges and deputies, he did not see why they could not have one for the commissioners. Commissioner Parker stated it could be used also by the County Manager, who represented them. The vote was 3-2 to approve the motion, with Commissioners Strickland and Lockamy voting nay.

Item 5: Board Information

The following items were provided to the Board for information:

a. Letter of Interest Submitted to NCEM Indicating Interest in Grant Funding to Assist with Completion of Required Update to Multi-Jurisdictional Hazard Mitigation Plan

County Manager Reports (only budget presentation)

Presentation of Proposed Budget for FY 2014-2015; Scheduling of Budget Public Hearing

County Manager Ed Causey presented the proposed budget for FY 2014-2015 and reviewed his budget message (copy attached). Upon a motion made by Commissioner Parker and seconded by Commissioner Lockamy, the Board voted unanimously to schedule the budget public hearing for June 16, 2014 at 7:00 p.m. The Board scheduled budget work sessions for June 5 and June 10 beginning at 1:00 p.m. each day.

Public Comments

There floor was opened for comments, and the following were received:

Ann Knowles: This is the time that we need to speak, before you work on the budget. This is the time that we ask you to look very carefully at it, for the pay plan, for the future of our County employees, for the buildings, for all that has to be done. This wasn't created overnight, and it won't be repaired overnight, but we have to start. When you're looking at the budget, and I've been to the budget meetings with you. We didn't find anywhere that you found a whole lot of waste because we have been cut to the bone every year. So we are asking you as you look at this budget and start your cutting, do not sacrifice your employees. Do not sacrifice the residents. Work it out together so that all of us can benefit from you. Y'all have a lot of knowledge sitting up there in County government, a lot of knowledge of what our County needs and what we can afford. We know we can't afford to lose employees. I know we do not like to raise taxes, but we have to look back that we all voted to build these schools and build the buildings, and it was said then that in order to pay for them you were going to have to raise the taxes. I don't want to pay more taxes, but I want to have my office operatable for the veterans in this county. We can't take any cuts; we are bare bones, and we don't go at the end of the year and spend every dime. If there's any we can save, we turn it back in because we are going to need it next year. I thank you. You've got a hard job, but you're everyone up to the task. I applaud our County Manager. He is an excellent leader to your county departments. We are very fortunate to have Mr. Causey because he's led us through some dark times, and he can bring us out on the other side.

Adjournment

Upon a motion made by Commissioner McLamb and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to adjourn.

Jefferson B. Strickland, Chairman

Susan J. Holder, Clerk to the Board

SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

The Sampson County Board of Commissioners convened for a special meeting at 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday, May 27, 2014 in the County Administration Building Conference Room, 406 County Complex Road, in Clinton, North Carolina. The following members present: Chairman Jefferson Strickland, Vice Chairman Jarvis McLamb, and Commissioners Albert D. Kirby, Jr., Billy Lockamy and Harry Parker.

Chairman Strickland convened the meeting and noted the purpose of the meeting was to reconsider seeking legislative approval for a referendum for an additional ¼-cent sales tax. He called upon County Attorney Joel Starling who reviewed his written memo explaining that the matter could be reconsidered despite having a similar motion defeated at an earlier special meeting. He noted no impediment to the motion being considered anew as the first motion approved no action, so no "right" had vested by the Board's previous action, and there was no Board policy restriction on how often a question could be considered subsequently. The memorandum explained that a motion to reconsider was not necessary under the present circumstances; the question, could simply be introduced.

Commissioner McLamb stated that he did not believe he understood the matter as plainly as he should have the first time and moved to adopt a resolution requesting that the North Carolina General Assembly enact legislation authorizing Sampson County to hold an advisory referendum on whether to levy an additional ¹/₄-cent sales tax. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Lockamy.

Commissioner Kirby stated that he fully understood the need to generate revenue for local government, and the measure if approved was designed to generate approximately $900,000 per year by increasing the sales tax by a ¹/₄-cent. He stated that the purpose, however, was not to simply put the measure before the voters for their approval, the purpose was to raise their taxes under the pernicious ruse that they were doing it. He stated that if the Board believed this was just a matter of letting the voters decide, they believed in fairy tales. He stated that no one on the Board could say that their phone was ringing off the hook with voters demanding that commissioners raise their taxes. If that were the case, he said, he could understand the need for this emergency meeting. This move, he stated, was to give commissioners a way to vote for a tax increase by hiding behind the guise that it was the taxpayer who wanted to raise his or her taxes. He noted that there was a difference between this referendum and the beer and wine referendum that recently failed – this applied to all citizens and anyone who buys items in the county whereas the beer and wine referendum only effected those pockets where beer and wine were not sold. He stated that the Board was elected to make the hard decisions with respect to spending, taxing and cutting, adding to or eliminating waste in government; it was their duty alone, non-delegable. He added that should the referendum prevail, they would be left with the distinction of having the highest sales tax in the State, along with having the highest property tax of all our contiguous counties. He discussed that the local government was representative with five separate districts, and provided the example that if the voters in one of the five districts voted overwhelmingly against the matter, but the voters in the remaining four districts voted in favor, all of the citizens would be subject to the tax irrespective of the desires of the one district. He questioned the reasoning that the tax was "fair to all citizens" noting that the people who do not pay property taxes do not pay them because they do not own property because they do not have the money to buy property. He stated there were others who do not pay property taxes because they, intentionally or unintentionally, do not list the property. Millions of dollars could be realized, he stated, by simply ensuring that everyone listed and paid their taxes on the property they own. This was more unfair – having hard working, working class people dutifully pay their taxes while wealthy citizens and companies with the most resources do not. This tax would increase what the elderly and disabled paid for food and medicine, and it is unfair to raise taxes when there is waste in government, he added.

Commissioner Lockamy stated that he still thought it was the fairest tax; they lived in a free democracy, and it gave the citizens of Sampson County the opportunity to speak. Then, he noted, they would know what the majority of people wanted to do.

The motion was called and passed on a voted of 3-2 (Commissioners Kirby and Parker voting nay). (Copy of resolution filed in Inc. Minute Book _____, Page ____.)

Upon a motion made by Commissioner McLamb and seconded by Commissioner Lockamy, the Board voted unanimously to adjourn.

Jefferson B. Strickland, Chairman

Susan J. Holder, Clerk to the Board

SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

The Sampson County Board of Commissioners convened for a special meeting at 7:30 a.m. on Friday, May 16, 2014 in the County Administration Building Conference Room, 406 County Complex Road, in Clinton, North Carolina. The following members present: Chairman Jefferson Strickland, Vice Chairman Jarvis McLamb, and Commissioners Albert D. Kirby, Jr., Billy Lockamy and Harry Parker.

Chairman Strickland convened the meeting and called upon Commissioner Parker for the invocation. The Chairman explained that the purpose of the meeting was to discuss a matter that had been discussed informally for a year – the consideration of seeking legislative approval for a referendum for an additional local ¼-cent sales tax. The Chairman noted that such referendum should be conducted during a planned countywide general election to avoid additional election costs, and the opportunity only presented itself every two years, and there was an upcoming general election in November. He noted that now was the time to bring the request before the legislators who were currently in the short session.

The Chairman stated that the ¼-cent sales tax would bring in about $900,000 per year to the County (approximately equivalent to 2 cent on the tax rate), and after sharing the per capita municipal portions, the County would net approximately $850,000. The earliest time for the referendum being November, it would be April 2015 before it could go into effect (no effect on this year's budget). The deadline for making the decision, he encouraged, was now so that the request would go to the legislators.

Commissioner McLamb asked if the property tax would be cut if the ¼-cent sales tax referendum passed, and it was noted that would be the decision of future boards and revenue projections of future budgets. Commissioner Lockamy noted that the Board had heard budget presentations from all of the departments, but had not yet cut the budget. He noted that the beer and wine referendum did not pass and they needed some additional revenues to pay for County services, and the sales tax was the fairest. It should, he stated, be put to the citizens to decide. Commissioner McLamb stated he would be in favor of it if the property tax were reduced; they needed to stop taxing people.

County Attorney Joel Starling noted that the request may be echoed by other counties, so the request might need to be for a blanket bill statewide as opposed to only a local bill. Commissioner Lockamy stated that in his conversations with legislators, they may need to put a sunset provision in the request.

Commissioner Kirby asked if this were the same sales tax that was cut by the General Assembly years prior, and Mr. Clack explained that the tax which sunset was a ¹/₂-cent state sales tax.

Mr. Starling noted that the legislation was for an advisory referendum. If it passed, the Board would not necessarily be compelled to levy the tax, if the drafted legislation tracked the same as current statutes.

Commissioner Kirby stated that the Board had not yet dealt with it budget shortfall, and he was against raising taxes until the Board had done all that it could do. Commissioner Parker stated that there was more that could be done to find the waste in County government. Commissioner Lockamy noted that if it were on the ballot, the citizens would decide. Commissioner Kirby stated this was like tax and spend personified – the employee raises and the pay study giving someone a blank check – it is an inconsistent message. Chairman Strickland challenged the Board members, if they believed there was waste in government to put it on paper, identify it and make motions regarding it. Commissioner Kirby stated he would start with $50,000 for a pay study when the Board already knew employees need more pay. Commissioner Lockamy moved to proceed to seek legislative approval for an additional local ¼-cent sales tax. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Strickland, and failed on vote of 2-3 (Commissioners Lockamy and Strickland voting yes; Commissioners Kirby, Parker and McLamb voting nay).

The Chairman requested the Board sign a letter supporting legislative efforts (H1107) to have the County portion of lottery proceeds restored over a period of three years. Board members signed letters to be submitted to members of the Sampson County legislative delegation.

Closed Session

Upon a motion made by Commissioner McLamb and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to go into Closed Session pursuant to GS 143-318.11(a)(4) to discussion industrial recruitment. In Closed Session, Economic Developer John Swope updated the Board on prospect activity and potential changes in incentives offered. No action was taken in Closed Session. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner McLamb, the Board voted unanimously to come out of Closed Session.

Upon a motion made by Commissioner McLamb and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the Board voted unanimously to adjourn.

Jefferson B. Strickland, Chairman

Susan J. Holder, Clerk to the Board

SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

The Sampson County Board of Commissioners convened for their regular meeting at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, April 7, 2014 in the County Auditorium, 435 Rowan Road in Clinton, North Carolina. Members present: Chairman Jefferson Strickland, and Commissioners Albert D. Kirby, Jr., Billy Lockamy and Harry Parker. Absent: Commissioner Jarvis McLamb.

The Chairman convened the meeting and called upon Commissioner Parker for the invocation. Commissioner Lockamy then led the Pledge Allegiance.

Approval of Agenda

Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to approve the agenda with the addition of a Closed Session for economic development.

Roads

Monthly Report - NCDOT District Engineer Keith Eason was present to address questions and concerns from the Board and citizens in attendance. He had no specific report other than that the department was conducting maintenance activities to catch up from the winter weather, patching, repairing potholes. Chairman Strickland asked about the paving schedule, and Mr. Eason stated that the contract includes Duplin County also, and the contractor was working in Duplin; there would be about 15 miles paved in Sampson County. Commissioner Kirby asked if all the property for Highway 24 had been acquired, and Mr. Eason stated that the majority should be, but there were always a few stragglers.

Item 1: Reports and Presentations

Governor's Volunteer Awards Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Janna Bass introduced Thad Toomer and Cliff Ireland, recipients of the Governor's Volunteer Awards for 2014. The awards were presented by Ms. Bass, Patrick Giddeons (nominator of Thad Toomer and Guardian Ad Litem representative) and the Chairman.

Courthouse Security The Chairman recognized Judge W. Douglas Parsons, Senior Resident Superior Court Judge, who had requested the opportunity to address the Board regarding Courthouse security. Judge Parsons yielded the floor to Commissioner Kirby who stated that he had had the opportunity to meet with Judge Parsons, Judge Leonard Thagard, County Manager Ed Causey, the Chairman, and Public Works Director Lee Cannady following the budget discussions wherein the Board voted for the security measures. He stated that he had to admit that having nearly a half million dollars added to the debt services added a sinking feeling to his stomach, so he made some comments during that particular budget session having second thoughts about having other things done to avoid that addition to the County's debt services. He stated that he didn't want to be misconstrued or misinterpreted by the comments; they were just his thinking aloud that if there was anything possible that could have been done, he would have hoped that the County would have done that to avoid the huge amount of money. He stated that to the extent that anyone might have considered his comments an indication that the judicial staff and the Clerk's office, all the people at the Courthouse, that they do not work diligently and hard, that would have been a total misunderstanding of what he said. He stated that he knew how hard Judge Parson worked when he was practicing law, and as a judge he works just as diligently; Judge Thagard is the same way. Following those comments, he noted, they met and talked about ways that the judiciary could assist the County in helping with scheduling. It was a productive conversation, he stated, and the judges listened to them and are addressing those concerns. Judge Parsons informed the Board that the system they had put into place was working well, functioning smoothly; people are not waiting in line. The people of Sampson County now have a forum in which to do their business, he stated. Referencing family court, he noted that with the hostilities, people will not be able to do something stupid with a weapon. He thanked the Board for their actions. The Chairman and Commissioner Kirby noted feedback that the implementation was going smoothly. Judge Parsons commended the Board for resolving an issue they had inherited.

Multi-Disciplinary Efforts to Establish a Child Advocacy Center MDT Coordinator Shannon Blanchard discussed that in order to have a Child Advocacy Center they had to have a multi-disciplinary team in place and reviewing child sex abuse cases. She introduced the portion of the team present: Health Director Wanda Robinson, Jane Dudley of DSS, Sheriff's Deputy Chris Godwin, District Attorney Ernie Lee and DSS Director Sarah Bradshaw. Also on the team, she noted, were Patrick Giddeons of Guardian ad Litem and Ken Jones of Eastpointe. She reported that in the last year and a half, the team had reviewed 102 cases of child sex abuse and currently had 58 open cases. The group urged the Board and staff to attend an informational breakfast on April 9, 2014 from 8-10 a.m. at the Department of Social Services to raise community awareness. Mr. Ernie Lee discussed the number of current cases in Sampson County, the need for a multi-disciplinary team of professionals to work with the cases, and the CAC successes in Onslow County.

Update on Activities of the Transportation Advocacy Group TAG Committee Chairman Jerol Kivett discussed the purposes of the committee: to advise the Board on transportation needs and to advocate for those needs. He stated that since its appointment, the group has actively advocated for the completion and four-laning of Highway 24 from Clinton to Interstate 40. During the past year, the committee has held seven meeting to identify how to best serve its purposes. They determined that they need to work with and through those individuals and organizations which make transportation decisions and had met with NCDOT Board member Michael Lee, Secretary of Transportation Tony Tata and his Chief of Staff Bobby Lewis, Division Engineer Karen Fussell, District Engineer Lin Reynolds and RPO Director Joel Strickland. From these meetings, he noted, they have recognized how transportation funding decisions were being made. He noted that such decision-making at the State level had undergone a major change, with decisions made under the new strategic mobility formula - a data driven system for deciding which projects are worthy of state and federal transportation dollars. They learned, he said, that the quantitative data for this year had been completed, and the remaining two sections of NC 24 have scored in all three categories (the state, the regional and the division). The TAG Committee, he said, continues to learn the most important committees to work through and have identified the need to work through the RPO and the RTAC, administered by the Mid Carolina COG. He noted that Sampson County was represented on the RPO by Commissioner Kirby and Roland Hall of Roseboro. On the RTAC, Sampson County is represented by several individuals including Planning Director Mary Rose and EDC Director John Swope. This committee, he explained, ranks the transportation projects in Sampson, Cumberland and Harnett counties to make a recommendation to the planning organization, which in turn makes its recommendations to the NCDOT. He noted that this shows how important it is for projects to be advocated for from the start, through these organizations. In addition to advocating for NC 24, the Committee is monitoring the plans for Highway 70 and Interstate 795. He welcomed the Board's advice and support.

Opposition to Referendum Regarding Beer and Wine Sales in Sampson County Turkey Town Commissioner Rev. Tony Moore and Dr. Larry Watts, Co-Chairmen of the Citizens for the Prevention of Countywide Alcohol Sales, were present to express their opposition to the referendum on countywide alcohol sales. Rev. Moore presented a resolution passed by the Town of Turkey in opposition to the referendum. Rev. Moore noted that the greater the accessibility of alcohol, the greater the potential for its related problems. As a visual aid, Rev. Moore laid out $10 in rolls of nickels on the floor in front of commissioners and stacks of dollar bills, stating that for every $10 (of revenue), there would be $214 that would be spent in alcohol-related services. He stated that when more alcohol outlets were added across the county, the County was going to have to have more law enforcement and alcohol-related services, making it a revenue negative decision. Dr. Watts spoke to personal experiences in a small town Montana and as a victim of an alcohol-related accident. He discussed statistics related to alcohol use.

Later in the meeting, Commissioner Kirby asked to go back and comment on this issue. He stated that as commissioners they were in a tough situation, in the unfortunate position of having to give the appearance that they were for alcohol, so to speak. He stated that was not the purpose of the vote; they were in the uncomfortable position of advocating for positive revenue that could come into the county. He noted that alcohol was already all over the county, whether it is sold in specific areas or not. He clarified that they were not voting for it, they were just saying let's let the individual decide on whether or not you want to have that revenue stream coming in.

Item 2: Action Items

Public Hearing (continued from February 3, 2014) – Consideration of Appropriations and Expenditures for NOVI Carolina Digester III, LLC The Chairman opened the hearing and recognized Economic Developer John Swope. Mr. Swope requested that the hearing be closed as the company was not prepared to bring more specific plans at this time. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the hearing was closed. Mr. Swope stated that they were still working with NOVI, hoping to find a suitable site. Commissioner Kirby stated that he hoped that the site will not end up being in an African-American district; it would not look good for some of the people who were against the industry locating in the industrial park to be in favor of it being located in a minority district.

Consideration of Process for Adoption of Animal Control Ordinance County Manager Ed Causey noted that the Board had held a public hearing regarding the proposed Animal Control Ordinance, and the Board had several options for proceeding – approving the modified ordinance as presented, holding additional discussions or making additional modifications. Staff indicated that they had not received negative feedback calls, and Board members noted their previous questions had been answered. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the Board voted unanimously to adopt the modified Animal Control Ordinance as presented that evening. It was noted that since Commissioner McLamb was absent, the ordinance would be reconsidered for a second vote at the next regular meeting.

Appointments Assistant County Manager Susan Holder reviewed those on behalf of Commissioner McLamb, pursuant to his request in her phone conversation with him earlier that day. Commissioner Kirby voiced concerns at proceeding, but the Board considered the appointments as presented.

Workforce Development Board Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner Lockamy, the Board voted unanimously to replace Tarheel Challenge Deputy Director with Director Edward Timmons as the communitybased organization representative to the Workforce Development Board.

RPO/RTAC – Chairman Strickland recommended that Arnold Page be appointed to fill Roland Hall's seat, but the item was tabled for further discussion.

Local Emergency Planning Committee Upon a motion made by Commissioner Parker and seconded by Commissioner Lockamy, the Board voted unanimously to appoint Ron Thompson (Red Cross), Timothy Daniels (NCHP), Courtney Boyette (Eastpointe LMO), Cliff Ireland (Amateur Radio), Paul Hutchins (Amateur Radio), Meagan Myers (Health), Kelly Parrish (Health) and Grant Jones (NC Forestry) to the LEPC Committee.

Sampson County Convention and Visitors Bureau Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to appoint Julie Stadig to replace Mason Tarr for a three-year term on the CVB Board.

Southeastern Economic Development Commission Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner Lockamy, the Board voted unanimously to reappoint Cary B. Taylor to the SEDC Board.

Jefferson B. Strickland, Chairman

Susan J. Holder, Clerk to the Board

SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

The Sampson County Board of Commissioners convened for a special meeting at 6:00 p.m. on March 31, 2014 in the County Auditorium, 435 Rowan Road, in Clinton, North Carolina. The following members present: Chairman Jefferson Strickland, and Commissioners Billy Lockamy and Harry Parker. Absent: Vice Chairman Jarvis McLamb and Commissioner Albert D. Kirby, Jr.

Chairman Strickland convened the meeting and opened the public hearing for the purpose of receiving comments with regard to the proposed Animal Control Ordinance. County Manager Ed Causey recapped the process to date for the development of the proposed ordinance, and Health Director Wanda Robinson reviewed a PowerPoint presentation overview of the purpose and provisions of the ordinance and the modifications that had been made as part of the process (attached). She introduced the committee who had worked on the ordinance development: Sgt. Jessica Kittrell, Animal Shelter Director Alan Canady, Nursing Director Kathie Johnson, Sheriff Jimmy Thornton, Major Alan Autry, Clinton Animal Control Officer Kevin Herring, and Health Board members Paul Bradshaw and Robert Butler. Animal Control Officer Sgt. Jessica Kittrell reviewed a handout on the most frequently asked questions (attached).

The floor was opened for comments, and the following were received:

Mark Dawson: Asked about the numbers of animals allowed and whether it would apply within municipalities.

County Attorney Joel Starling: The ordinance would only apply within those municipalities who chose to adopt it. He read Section 1.74/1.64.

Lee Pilkerton (5515 Hobbton Hwy): Bought a place to raise rabbits and was told if he put a sign out front saying "Rabbits for Sale" I have to have a retail zoning. Someone made the statement, it was in the newspaper, that this is a rural county, and we need to decide what's rural. A lot of people raise rabbits for pets, to eat, and for laboratories. You can't have more than 10 rabbits? This ordinance is very restrictive. As far as I know, my place is zone residential/agriculture. As far as addressing dogs running loose, tearing up people's gardens and crops, that needs to be done, but we don't need to get too restrictive to what we are living in a rural county.

County Attorney Starling: Thinks the 10 rabbit limit only applies within a municipality.

James Anderson (2271 Minnie Hall Road): Upon reading the ordinance, it struck me that the domesticated animal is not the problem. It is the undomesticated owners of some of the animals that are the problem because they don't provide the care, the maintenance or the guidance the animals need. So we have to keep that in mind. Don't come down too hard on the animals because they don't know law. Come down hard on the people because they are the ones who need to abide by the law. I hate to see any animal euthanized just because their owner is too sorry to take care of it, to give it a shelter, to care for. If you've got a puppy and he's chewing your shoes, you've got to give him guidance. If he's digging up the yard, you've got to give him training. Because if you don't, you're going to get up one night barefooted and go outside and fall in a hole and break your leg. But whose fault is it; it is not the puppy. On my version there are many sections that are reserved. What's the purpose of a reserved section and is there anything in those reserved sections that we need to know about?

Mr. Starling: It is standard practice when you draft a document. If you read the North Carolina General Statutes, for example, there are sections that are reserved to add future things. When you draft an ordinance, these are blank spaces you can insert things into later.

Mr. Anderson: The big point is, has this ordinance been construed to be revenue neutral or revenue positive or revenue negative. It's going to cost money to enforce it. It has been estimated that the workload of the Animal Control officials is going to go up at least 30%. The only two alternatives is that they work 30% harder or you have to hire more individuals. If you ask most people in their job, they're not going to be able to carry an extra 30% load. If they do, it's going to get sorta sloppy because they are going to have to let something slide. I think we are probably going to have to hire more people. That leads me to the fact that how are we going to pay for it? Is it going to be too easy for somewhere down the road revisit the idea of registering animals and charging a privilege tax? That's the one thing that kinda irked me on the whole thing, the privilege tax. I already pay a privilege tax in the form of a property tax to live here. I already pay taxes to the County every time I buy pet products at a store through the form of sales tax. I wonder how it's going to be paid for because there is going to be a cost involved.

Mr. Causey: At this point in time, there are no plans or any realistic ways to have any kind of revenue generating from the privilege tax. From a management standpoint, we would expect that in the short term there will be some challenges in getting everyone's understanding of the ordinance, and there will be some increased workload. At this point in time, we do not have plans to increase the staffing specifically because of the ordinance.

Mr. Anderson: Thank you for allowing us the opportunity to come here and ask questions. I hope you would, if there are major changes once this ordinance is adopted, also in the future afford us the opportunity to have a hearing on those changes also, as in new fees or new regulations put into those reserved blocks. I think we as voters and citizens deserve that right. It would make everyone more cordial to each other to have that opportunity.

Betty Harvey (180 Timberlake Drive): I am one of those people who never had a lot of pets, but my next door neighbor had a cat, and she let that cat get out and get pregnant several times. Those kittens wandered around in our yard, looking pitiful, and she didn't take responsibility for those animals, so my husband and I took it upon ourselves when those animals got old enough to get those animals spayed and neutered, including the males. I just want to know, the feral cats that are in the yard that we've had fixed, what kind of penalties and fines I have – I can't catch them again to get them rabies shots – what kind of penalties and fines am I going to incur because I feed and keep water out for those cats if somebody comes around my house or if somebody complains about all those animals in the woods. It was about 22 cats that we had fixed.

Officer Kittrell: Once you begin to feed any animal for an extended period of time, then you would be considered harboring them. Simply spaying and neutering – that controls the population. The issue – you live in a highly populated area. You could be responsible for not having them vaccinated. You have taken over the responsibility for feeding them, now you are responsible. The issue is – the cat gets into a fight with a rabid raccoon, that's going to spread like wildfire. You're in a community with kids playing, and here's a cat. Unfortunately, that's why the ordinance will have violations for harborers. If you can't control it and get a rabies shot, it is best to have Animal Control pick it up and do what needs to be done with it. Twenty-two feral cats that are not vaccinated against rabies – that could be your worst nightmare.

Claude Smith (4420 New Hope Road): About the cats running at large, what are the requirements on that? We have a cat that is a yard cat.

Officer Kittrell: Realistically, the only issue we would have with any animal running at large would be if we were to receive a complaint. For instance if you had a tom, and he went into the next door yard and sprayed. If the animal, for instance, went next door and killed a rabbit, then we would be called. The ordinance as far as running at large is complaint based. The initial contact would be to advise you of complaint so you can correct it.

Betty Harvey: I think instead of us trying to find a way to euthanize these animals, we need to find a way to make the owner or people who initially got these things started, we need to find a way to penalize them. These animals can't help themselves.

Officer Kittrell: In that situation, there is an abandonment clause in the State of NC and in our ordinance, if you cease to provide care. The ordinance would address that.

There being no further comments, the hearing was closed. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Parker and seconded by Commissioner Lockamy, the Board voted unanimously to adjourn.

Jefferson B. Strickland, Chairman

Susan J. Holder, Clerk to the Board

SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

The Sampson County Board of Commissioners convened for their regular meeting at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, March 3, 2014 in the County Auditorium, 435 Rowan Road in Clinton, North Carolina. Members present: Chairman Jefferson Strickland, Vice Chairman Jarvis McLamb and Commissioners Albert D. Kirby, Jr., Billy Lockamy and Harry Parker.

The Chairman convened the meeting and asked EMS Director Ronald Bass to give a brief report on the anticipated winter weather for the evening. He then called upon Commissioner Parker for the invocation. Commissioner Lockamy then led the Pledge Allegiance.

Approval of Agenda

Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the Board voted unanimously to approve the agenda with the addition of item h, to amend the Board's published meeting schedule for the budget session on March 18, 2014.

Roads

Monthly Report - NCDOT Keith Eason, NCDOT Highway Engineer, was present to answer questions and concerns of the Board and citizens in attendance. Mr. Eason had no specific reports on secondary roads construction or maintenance due to the weather conditions of the season. Mr. Eason stated that due to the weather conditions the trucks were fitted with spreaders and plows, and crews would be ready depending on the outcome of the weather. Commissioner Lockamy and Commissioner McLamb expressed their appreciation for a job well done on maintaining the roads. The Chairman asked for an update on the Minnie Hall Road resurfacing, and Mr. Eason stated that he thought it was to be funded this year. Commissioner Parker inquired if the commercial traffic would allow for improvements to Ivanhoe Road, and Mr. Eason stated that the road was on the five year plan to resurface and widen due to the truck traffic. There were no comments from the floor.

Item 1: Action Items

Public Hearing – Consideration of Appropriations and Expenditures for Economic Activities Related to Carolina Cellulosic Biofuels, LLC The Chairman opened the hearing and recognized Economic Developer John Swope. Mr. Swope reviewed a new revised incentive package for the Chemtex project because of a $61,174,676 increase in the proposed taxable investment to be made by the industry. He reviewed the County's incentives policy and how the project met the required thresholds, information from the company pledging investments and job/wage creation, incentives expected from the State (and passed through Sampson County), site maps and project benefits summary, the draft incentive agreement and a resolution approving the agreement and authorizing the execution of associated documents. He noted the timing of the payment of grant back incentives and the County's acceleration of receipt of tax revenues. The floor was opened for comments, and none were received; the hearing was closed. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner McLamb, the Board voted unanimously to approve the resolution approving the revised incentive package and authorizing the execution of the associated incentive agreement documents.

Public Hearing - Consideration of Appropriations and Expenditures for Economic Activities Related to Brooks Brothers, Inc. The Chairman opened the hearing and recognized Economic Developer John Swope. Mr. Swope reviewed proposal for grant back incentives to be paid to an existing industry, Brooks Brothers, Inc., for their commitment of capital investments and employment levels related to the expansion of their Garland manufacturing plant and Clinton Distribution Center. He provided a company commitment letter and a draft of the incentive agreement. Commissioner Kirby asked about concerns that might be raised regarding the company's investment of modernized equipment that could be moved if the company left. Mr. Swope noted that the incentives were performance based, including employment commitments. If they did not meet required commitments, the incentives would not be paid. The floor was opened for comments, and none were received; the hearing was closed. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the Board voted unanimously to approve the resolution approving the revised incentive package and authorizing the execution of the associated incentive agreement documents.

Award of Bid for Comprehensive Review of Job Classification, Compensation and Benefits Programs County Manager Ed Causey noted the item has been tabled from the February meeting for further discussion. He cautioned that positive things could result from the study if it were approved, but it was not an "end-all;" it would be a program to create opportunities for the County workforce and protect the interests of the citizens in the long run. He recapped that an RFP was issued in the November, and the six proposals received by December 30, 2013 by prospective vendors were evaluated by a management team consisting of the County Manager, Assistant County Manager, Finance Officer, Deputy Finance Officer, and Human Resources Management Director. He discussed the study's three major components: the pay study component to resolve retention issues; the job classification study to resolve potential disparity and unintended discrimination issues; and a benefits study to evaluate the appropriate levels of employee benefits offered for the future. He discussed the efforts that would be made to ensure every employee had an understanding of the process and the opportunity to meet with the chosen contractor. He noted that the evaluation team recommended the bid be awarded to Springstead Incorporated (working through a contract with the NC Association of County Commissioners) at a bid price of $41,778, plus expenses not to exceed $4,800. Mr. Causey discussed that there would be multiple ways to implement the recommendations made by the study.

Commissioner Kirby reiterated concerns that there would be no way of knowing what the recommendations would be and thus the vote today would be an "open check" saying that the Board would implement whatever the consultant would recommend. Mr. Causey speculated that while employees appreciated what had been done to date, there could be reasonable increases in salaries, but that the County's benefits may have to be adjusted and determinations made as to how and when levels of benefits would be available to new employees and as post-employment benefits. Commissioner Kirby asked to what extent the classification study would include facets of the County's Personnel Resolution, and Mr. Causey stated it would be reviewed. Initial discussions on the career path may have to be eliminated as job classifications are placed on the pay grade scale, he noted.

Chairman Strickland stated that the easiest thing to do would be an across-theboard increase of a particular percent, but that could not be done; a comprehensive approach to County employment, including benefits, needed to be done.

Mr. Causey clarified earlier statements regarding the need to approve the study only if the Board was willing to implement its recommendations, noting that there could be a range of options for implementation to meet goals over a period of years. He noted that not everyone would probably benefit initially.

Commissioner McLamb moved that the bid be awarded to complete the job classification, compensation and benefits study as recommended; the motion was seconded by Commissioner Lockamy. Deviating from traditional practice and procedure, the Chairman, with the Board's acknowledgement, opened the floor for public discussion before the vote. The following comments were received:

Ann Knowles, Veterans Service Office: I thank you for what you are fixing to do. It's what we talked about at the last Commissioner's meeting when you again gave me the opportunity to plead with you to do this pay study because it is important. As I said to you then, it will probably not help me. I have got too many years in, but the girl that has three years in my office, it will help her. It will let her see the light of day that if she does a good job for this County and she serves the Veterans well, she can promote on up. Maybe when she has 39 ½ years, she may be able to retire and go home because as I told you last time, I can't go home. I bought the family farm, and I've got to pay for it and my retirement is not there. So, I thank you on behalf of my office and any others that won't speak, I thank you on their behalf because you now give us the opportunity. Mr. Causey is going to bring this back for us, and we have a lot of faith in him that this is going to help the county employees. Thank you.

Michael Warren, IT Dept.: Good evening, commissioners. Sometimes I don't feel like what we discuss to you all does not resonate. I have been with the County nine years, going on ten. When I started gas was a $1.80 per gallon. If you have priced it today, you can tell it is tough, with groceries that have tripled since I started working under the County. It has become one of the advantages in working in this County that I am at home, and I have the convenience of being at home. But when I can't make ends meet then I have to do away with the conveniences and look elsewhere. So, in the near future I am getting to the point with the cost of living that I am going to have to move on to a better paying job. I have got no other choice, and there is nothing really here that I can take that would pay me more that I am making now in the field that I am in. So, I am going to have to go out of town. I am not only speaking for myself and other county employees. Because I work in the IT Department I see and hear about a lot that goes on in the County. I hear other employees talking, and they are struggling just like me. I just think we need to look at doing something because everybody is struggling to the point that if they have a lot of years in, they think they can't leave. Those that don't have a lot of years in, we are losing valuable talent. We have had two to leave our department that were outstanding workers, very smart, and we have allowed them to walk out the door. They have gone to other counties and they have a second salary just by leaving our county. So, I just want you to add that under your belt and consider that, and I thank you.

Angie Sanderson, Sampson County Tax Office: The one thing that I want you to understand is in the department that I am in we deal with the public every single day, eight hours a day, five days a week, and it is hard dealing with the public. It is okay when everybody is happy and all that, but we see the bad side of it. You don't want to pay your taxes no more than I do, and some people just take offense to a lot different. But, as far as the employees that we have, these girls work hard. They work very hard; they take money, they listen to people grumble and griping. They answer the telephone. They multi task a lot, and I can't keep a girl because we are not paying them enough, and it is very hard to do the job that you are asking them to do if we have to train somebody every two to three years because they have left to go somewhere else. I am like Mike, I have been there too long and I can't afford to go anywhere else, But, most of the girls I have now haven't got that many years in, and if something comes up and someone is going to offer them more money, I can't blame them for going. Thank you.

Dee Bryant: I am a citizen of Sampson County. I am not, however, an employee of Sampson County. Mr. Causey, you seem to have a real good grasp on what needs to be done. I don't know if it is consultation with these other consulting firms, but spending $50,000 for someone to come in here and tell you what you businessmen and employers already knows needs to be done, seems to me like a waste. That's just my opinion. I just can't see. You seem like you guys could get together, form a committee, and make these decisions and not have to wait however long it is going to take and plus spend $50,000 of the County's money.

County Manager Ed Causey: I think one of the things that are different between us and the industries: in this study you have 101 different positions that need to be classified. That is different than me running my own business where I have four or five positions. We have 101 different classifications and when you start comparing those classifications with different areas coming up and making sure we are comparing apples with apples is a little bit different than just sitting here trying to routinely come up with the decision.

Dee Bryant: So the salaries now are not based on classifications?

County Manager Ed Causey: Yes, they are based on classification that have not been reviewed and evaluated and were not implemented in 2003, so it is continued. As we have changed technology we have not changed the classification.

Dee Bryant: And it takes a special consulting firm to do that.

County Manager Ed Causey: It generally takes people with a lot of expertise.

Heather Bonney, Library Director: I can testify to the changes this county has undergone just since I have been here. I came here in 2002. Most of my libraries had one or two computers. We had moxies and monks - Chris could tell you about this. I had to teach myself how to administer a server. We had to install Wi-Fi. We had to put in high tech fiber. Now we are talking about trying to upgrade to get more speed because I have got over three hundred to three hundred and fifty people coming to my libraries during the summer just in Clinton. I have more than sixty to seventy thousand people hits on the internet every single year for people who can't afford their own internet connections at home. They can't afford to keep their computers up to date because it is changing rapidly, and my library system is the only one that provides them with these things. Garland, I know we have the only Wi-Fi access there. Newton Grove, I am pretty sure we are probably the only one there. Roseboro might not be. But Clinton, we are down town, and we get hit all the time. Commissioner Kirby, you come in the library you see how busy we are, and my people who work there, one of them has been there for over thirty years. Lark Thornton is just now going to be retiring this year in about two months. She came with the building in Newton Grove in 1982. We didn't know anything about computers in 1982. My people have had to learn computer things, and when the public comes in we are the ones that have to go over to the computer - not actually have to, we get to. We love to help people; that is why we got into the service we are in. We had to teach ourselves how to use this technology in order the help Sampson County citizens, and so we read, we learn, we adjust, and we adapt and overcome. I think is endemic of everyone in Sampson County government. You know, we see a need in the public and we try to move in order to meet that need. When you are talking about the different classifications you are right; my people didn't even know anything about the internet fifteen years ago, but now we do. My stuff still says that we are typing catalogue cards in my classification study, We don't even have catalogue cards any more now; we have an online computer system. It talks about things that we don't even do anymore or because the process and procedures that had made them antiquated, or we got rid of. So when you are talking about reclassifying and doing this kind of stuff I wouldn't even know where to begin to even rewrite my own stuff, and I am pretty good at it. But, I just wanted to say all of that to say thank you for considering this seriously because I lost six people last year. We adjusted. Again, we overcame. We are still seeing actually Newton Grove, and Roseboro has seen an increase in their usage percentage wise per day, even though we are closed one day. We are still seeing this many people go and are still doing with what we have got and all my people wanted was exactly what you are doing - just a little bit of recognition that something needs to be done. Let's make it a couple of short steps toward a goal of some sort instead of feeling kind of hopeless and not being able to make any progress. I guess that is basically what I want. As a Sampson County employee, I want to go back to my people and look at them in their eyes and say we are starting to do something. It's going to look better and be better. I know bread costs $3.00 now when it use to cost $1.25 five years ago but, we are going to start to do something. So, I do want to show my appreciation and my staff's appreciation for your taking your time in thinking about this.

Ray Jordan, Expo Center Director: Thank you for the opportunity to speak with you, and I want to turn this around a little bit different circle. Sampson County is roughly six hundred employees. It would be the same size of our large manufacturing operations. As long as I have been here, almost sixteen years, we do not have a Human Resource Department. And (to Ms. Bryant) to answer your question, we have no one to turn to other than the County Manager or any other Administrative staff in areas relating to Human Resources. I have been here sixteen years, and the thing that troubles me is that when I retire who is going to take my place because what the citizens do deserve, they deserve someone that is in that job that is happy in that job and wants to serve the public. That is hard to find these days, especially when we are at the levels we are now with our salary. But more importantly is that if I hire someone today to come to work for me, how can I assure them that I can step them through and help them create a career for them within our government? It goes back to our employees as well, and we have to put forth the effort for you, and I think that's what our employees do every day. I certainly appreciate you taken this under consideration. I know it is a tough thing to consider, and there are a lot of employees out here that do good work, and I am glad to be a part of their team.

John Turner, EMS: One of the concerns I see is in reference to the study that was done a few years ago, one of the same surveys. We have not seen, and there has been a lot of discussion, but we have not seen a lot of changes for the money we paid then so what are we going to get from this one that we didn't get from the last one?

Ed Causey, County Manager: Hopefully implementation.

John Turner : Along that line I have concerns. I have only been with the County two years, so I see myself as pretty new in the service, especially with EMS, with mostly the people that have been there for years. I don't see any advancement. I guess that will come in with the classification. Because right now, other than the director, three supervisors, a training officer, and three FTOs, all positions are just base level positions. There is no progression for me. It looks bad for me to apply for a job and put down I have been an EMT paramedic with Sampson County for eight years, and I have no advancement in my pay or my position. I hope that we can look at that and find a way to show some progression for some employees and some milestones for some people to progress to that would allow us to look like we are doing something to better ourselves for the County.

Ed Causey, County Manager: What he is talking about is obviously anybody coming to work would like an opportunity for a promotion and many instances hoping it would be possible. The other side of the coin is that sometimes we can get into career fields where that is the position that you are going to be in for a good long time. I think what the gentlemen is talking about having something, if I come to work with you today, is there any chance that my salary is going to improve if I stay in the same position over the next few years. Hopefully we have the potential to come up with an answer to correct that, to be able to offer employees some indication of how they might get there in an orderly fashion that is fair to everyone.

Teresa Smith, Tax Office: As crazy as it may sound I love my job. I absolutely love it. I work in the mapping department and work with deeds, and I love it. I love working with the people, but I hate my pay. I have been there almost ten years. My check is just a little more than $100.00 than the very first check I got, and that is sad. My husband passed away, and I am by myself. Pay your bills on $1,200.00 a month. Buy your groceries, pay your light bill, pay your phone bill, buy gas for your car, pay for your medicine - do it on $1,200.00 for a month. I challenge you. It is hard, but I love my job; I love working for the County, and I appreciate my job. I appreciate having the opportunity to come to work, but if you can help us with our pay I will greatly appreciate it, and I know all employees will to. Thank you.

There were no other comments from the floor. Commissioner Lockamy asked if the costs for the study were included in the budget, and Mr. Causey stated no. Commissioner Lockamy noted that he hated to spend money as much as anyone does, but that sometimes you have to spend money to make money; sometimes you have to spend money to save money. He noted that he was a businessman and knew his business fairly well - a farming operation and two/three insurance agencies – but with the multiple employees and jobs (600 employees and 100 positions), the County Manager had asked for some help. He stated that he was a taxpayer, and the employees were taxpayers living in this county, and that he thought they were headed down the right road; they definitely have to make some changes, benefits for employees, salaries and positions.

Commissioner Kirby noted that he had been practicing law for about 25 years and was a trial lawyer who had tried lots of cases throughout the nation. He noted that when he was picking the jury one if the first things he talked to them about was the fact that we are sum total of our experiences. He recounted that he was born in a shotgun house on Steel Street in the middle of District Five and grew up poor. His father struggled with alcoholism all of his life, and his mother struggled with five children, in abject poverty, but she made it. He stated that perhaps this painted the way he considered this. There are sixty-four thousand citizens out there, so the Board couldn't just consider the six hundred. He stated that he was not saying that the Board should not increase the salaries or do something about the salaries, but that he could not see how they could spend $50,000 to get answers to something the Board already knew. He stated that he thought they should try what the Board tried to do two years ago, but in a different way. He noted that the Board attempted to do the career path but ran into problems because they had some unwanted effects, situations where some were getting money and others were not getting it, or some were getting big amounts and others were not getting it. It did not appear to be fair. He recalled that it troubled him some people were coming in saying it was not fair, and it would create hostility among employees for some to get huge raises and some to get none. He stated that the principle of the Personnel Resolution was very good. He stated that he was not voting against addressing the issue, but thought that they needed to sit down among themselves and figure it out as an organization - not have an open where we are not knowing how it is going to be implemented, not knowing how the classification would come into effect, and not knowing how much it is going to be. He stated that he thought it was a bad idea at this point, and that was why he would be against it just as it was proposed - not against addressing salaries.

Commissioner Parker stated that he was the only commissioner on the Board who had worked for the County; he had served thirty-four years in this county. He stated that he felt for the employees because he knew some of them out there and had worked with them. He stated that the employees need help; he was for it, but how depended on the Board. He stated that if you want something that you have never had, you had to do something different. He noted that they, as county commissioners, employees, they loved this county, but it takes sacrifice, and the county employees have sacrificed a lot. He stated that they could not continue the way that we are and what they were doing now about the employees. He stated that he voted for something to be done and they keep their trained employees which other counties have taken because we are just a training ground for them. Chairman Strickland recalled there was a motion and a second on the floor, and Finance Officer David Clack clarified that the motion would also need to include an appropriation from Contingency to pay for it.

Commissioner McLamb stated that he thought the County employees needed a raise too and was not against the employees but was not really sure, but thought that they should go ahead and try this and see where it led.

Commissioner Kirby asked if there would be any position where they could look to see during the process where we stand as far as other aspects of the budget, if as the study was being done what would be the impact on other budgetary issues before they got to the bottom line. Mr. Clack noted that they may not have the results until after the Board adopted the budget. He noted that the Board may decide to set aside funds to implement a part of it if they saw fit to do that in this first year, or to look at the budget during the year to see if there was any other money to appropriate to implement it at some time during the year. He stated that unless they left money in the budget specifically to try to do this, they would have to find funds to implement it or go one year further out before it was implemented. Ideally, they would make a provision in the budget for at least part of it.

Commissioner McLamb stated that this Board of Commissioners thought the world of its employees. They would try to do something; if this is not it, they will try something else.

The motion was clarified and amended to award the bid as recommended and to appropriate the contract amount from Contingency to cover the cost of the study. The vote was held, and passed 4-1, with Commissioner Kirby voting against. Commissioner Kirby reiterated that his objection was not to the raises for the employees.

Review of Attorney Classification and Advice Regarding Medicaid Contracts The Chairman recognized Attorney Joel Starling who reviewed the Board's previous actions with regard to the award of the Medicaid Transportation contracts. He noted that the statutes did not require that these be bid; however counties could choose to bid out service contracts such as this. Mr. Starling recalled that in September the secondary contactor submitted a lower bid causing concerns based upon the language in the contracts and the Medicaid manual with respect to using the lowest cost provider to avoid what the County interpreted as the possibility of "chargebacks" whereby the County would not be reimbursed by the state because we "knowingly" did not utilize the lowest available cost provider. Attorney Starling noted that for that reason the County directed his firm to inquire into the matter, and they contacted the Division of Medicaid Assistance Compliance, who referred their office to the State Attorney General's Office. He noted that they were initially asked by the AG's office whether they were requesting a formal or informal advisory opinion, and his firm responded that they wanted a formal opinion, the document that would most insulate the County from the possibility of Medicaid chargebacks. He noted that Commissioner Kirby also submitted a request to the AG's Office. Mr. Starling reported that the response from the AG's office was to Commissioner Kirby, and essentially answered no to two questions: whether the Medicaid manual required the County to amend its contracts and shift primary transportation duties to a provider each time that provider submits a new, lower rate; and whether the County was required to enter into new contracts with new providers if such approached the County with a lower rate. Mr. Starling stated that he did not disagree with the AG's Office but noted, however, that the Board should be aware that this was an advisory letter, not as authoritative as a formal opinion. The State AG's Office stated it would not provide an advisory opinion on Medicaid matters. Mr. Starling noted that since the State merely administers federal Medicaid dollars, the federal government might not agree. After discussion of the Board's options, Commissioner McLamb made and Commissioner Lockamy seconded a motion that the Board defer action on Enroute 's request until the County received further guidance from the federal government. The vote was unanimous. (Copy of the Memorandum on Medicaid Transportation contract filed in Inc. Minute Book ______ Page _____).

Consideration of Amending Request to Board of Elections to Conduct Alcohol Beverage Referendum The Chairman called upon Attorney Joel Starling who discussed the Chairman's request that the Board consider amending the previously adopted resolution to remove provisions for "on-premises" sales. He confirmed that the resolution could be amended at this time. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to revise the resolution to limit the options to "off-premises" sales of malt beverages and unfortified wine. (Copy of the revised resolution filed in Inc. Minute Book _____, Page _____.)

Consideration of Request for Office Space for Probation County Manager Ed Causey, Public Works Director Lee Cannady, and Information Technology Director Chris Rayner presented the anticipated costs for improvements to space to provide three offices and restroom facilities to accommodate Probation offices on the County Complex. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Parker and seconded by Commissioner Lockamy, the Board voted unanimously to authorize the transfer of funds in the amount of $15,000 from Contingency to provide funds for the improvements to accommodate the Probation officers.

Appointment - Workforce Development Commission This item was tabled.

Appointment - Adult Care Home Community Action Committee Upon a motion made by Commissioner Jarvis McLamb and seconded by Commissioner Lockamy, the Board voted unanimously to appoint Ms. JoAnn Parker (City representative) and Mr. Winfred Ashford (County representative) to serve on this Board. Appointment-Airport Authority Upon a motion made by Commissioner McLamb and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to reappoint Ted Thomas and Teddy St. Pierre to the Airport Authority.

BOC Committee/Advisory Board Assignments Staff provided the Board a list of the assigned committee/advisory boards on which the Commissioners serve.

Amendment to the Board's Published Schedule The Chairman requested that the budget meeting on March 18, 2014 be rescheduled from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., and the Board discussed concerns with regard to commissioner availability on that date. The Board elected to amend its schedule to hold the meeting on March 25, 2014 at 4:00 p.m.

County Manager Reports

County Manager Ed Causey reminded the Board of their scheduled meeting with their legislators at 8:00 a.m. on March 11, 2014 and the Rally for Agriculture at 6:30 p.m. on March 17, 2014.

Public Comments

The following public comments were offered:

Eugene Pearsall: I think the Chairman at the last meeting tabled that appointment [to the Workforce Development Board]. Sampson County is the only one that really doesn't have all; we lack one member on that Board to be complete. Sampson County has been lacking the past four to five meetings; it is really getting tough. When you meet State requirements, that's the only thing that's stopping us, it's just Sampson County.

Commissioner McLamb and Parker expressed efforts to find a private sector representative. Assistant County Manager Susan Holder informed the Board that an email had been received that day from the Deputy Director Tarheel Challenge, who was appointed to the Workforce Development Board as the representative of a community based organization. He informed the County that there is now a new Director for Tarheel Challenge, and he will be requesting that the appointment be changed to him. Changes will be requested in the April agenda.

Closed Session

Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to go into Closed Session pursuant to GS 143-318.11(a)(3) to consult with the attorney. In Closed Session, the attorney discussed matters related to a tax appeal. No action was taken, and the Board returned to the Auditorium. Upon a motion made by Commissioner Kirby and seconded by Commissioner Parker, the Board voted to come out of Closed Session.

Adjournment

Upon a motion made by Commissioner Lockamy and seconded by Commissioner Kirby, the Board voted unanimously to adjourn.

Whereas, approximately 9,610 North Carolina women will be diagnosed with breast cancer and approximately 1,398 North Carolina women will die from the disease in 2014; and

Whereas, every woman is at risk for breast cancer even if she has no family history of the disease, but women over the age of 50 are at the greatest risk for being diagnosed with breast cancer; and

Whereas, a mammogram is the single most effective method of detecting breast changes long before physical symptoms that may be cancer can be seen or felt; and

Whereas, October is designated as National Breast Cancer Awareness Month and Pink Ribbon Month; and

Whereas, the pink ribbon is the internationally recognized symbol of breast cancer awareness; and

Whereas, community organizations, churches, synagogues and other places of worship, and work sites can play a special role in educating their members or employees about breast cancer.

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the Board of Commissioners of the County of Sampson does hereby proclaim October 2014 as Breast Cancer Awareness and Pink Ribbon Month in Sampson County. We urge all citizens of Sampson County to wear pink ribbons in recognition of breast cancer awareness and in honor of North Carolina women, especially Sampson County women, who have lost their lives to breast cancer and those women who are now courageously fighting the battle with breast cancer. We further encourage women to consult with their health care providers about regular screening, and we promote the early detection of breast cancer by regular clinical examinations, regular mammograms and monthly breast self-examinations.

Subject:	Resolution to Allow For Electronic Listing Filing

GS 105-310.1 allows for counties to accept electronic personal property listings. The North Carolina Department of Revenue has established guidelines for electronic filings. Each county must adopt a resolution allowing the county assessor to accept electronic filings prior to doing so. Please find attached a resolution allowing for electronic filings. I respectfully request that the resolution be added to the October 2014 Board of Commissioners agenda for consideration.

RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR ELECTRONIC LISTING AND EXTENDING THE TIME FOR FILING ELECTRONIC LISTINGS OF PERSONAL PROPERTY FOR PROPERTY TAX PURPOSES

WHEREAS, North Carolina General Statute § 105-310.1 authorizes Counties to permit electronic listing of personal property, and

WHEREAS, North Carolina General Statute § 105-307 permits the Board of County Commissioners to extend the deadline for filing electronic listings of personal property under G.S. § 105-304 to June 1, and

WHEREAS, North Carolina General Statute 105-311(b) authorizes electronic signature of personal property listings which are submitted electronically,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED as follows:

Section 1. The Sampson County Board of Commissioners hereby authorizes personal property listings to be submitted and signed electronically.

Sec. 2. The following procedures will apply to electronic tax filings. Electronic listings must be submitted online. Facsimiles will not be accepted as electronic listings. In order to file electronically, the taxpayer must use an electronic listing application approved by the County. To request an extension to electronically file personal property listings after January 31, the taxpayer must file an online request for extension of time during the month of January and must provide an Account ID provided by the County and associated with the location for which the extension is requested. Once an extension of time has been granted by the assessor the electronic filing must be received by the Sampson County Assessor no later than April 15 in order to avoid late list penalties.

Sec. 3. This resolution shall be recorded in the minutes of the Sampson County Board of Commissioners, and notice of the procedure and extension of time for electronic filing of personal property listings shall be published as required by G.S. § 105-296(c).

Sec. 4. This resolution is effective for all tax years after its adoption and at such time as the Assessor has the ability to implement a system for electronic listing.

ADOPTED this 6th day of October, 2014.

Paragraph C.

- (2) Organizations shall submit, as part of the annual indirect cost rate proposal, a certification that the requirements and standards of this paragraph have been complied with.

When conditions (1) and (2) are met, organizations are not required to establish records to support the allowablily of claimed costs in addition to records already required or maintained. Also, when conditions (1) and (2) are met, the absence of time logs, calendars, or similar records will not serve as a basis for disallowing costs by contesting estimates of lobbying time spent by employees during a calendar month.
- (5) Agencies shall establish procedures for resolving in advance, in consultation with OMB, any significant questions or disagreements concerning the interpretation or application of this section. Any such advance resolution shall be binding in any subsequent settlements, audits or investigations with respect to that grant or contract for purposes of interpretation of this Circular; provided, however, that this shall not be construed to prevent a contractor or grantee from contesting the lawfulness of such a determination.

RESOLUTION SUPPORTING THE ATLANTIC COAST PIPELINE

WHEREAS, the Atlantic Coast Pipeline will bring new supplies of natural gas to North Carolina, helping Duke Energy Carolinas and Duke Energy Progress to further reduce their air emissions in the coming decades by allowing them to efficiently and responsibly meet growing power demand and replace coal power plants with cleaner-burning natural gas power plants; and

WHEREAS, the pipeline will improve the reliability and geographic diversity of natural gas supplies for North Carolina consumers and businesses by bringing natural gas to consumers from natural gas-rich regions that are currently not accessible to Duke Energy customers; and

WHEREAS, the pipeline enhances natural gas delivery capacity in eastern North Carolina through Piedmont Natural Gas' commitment to invest an additional $190 million to expand its natural gas delivery network throughout the region; and

WHEREAS, the pipeline may provide additional energy from new, untapped natural gas reserves; and

WHEREAS, the pipeline route to be approved will provide a means of new energy with the least impact on the environment, cultural and historic resources while being overseen by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC); and

WHEREAS, the pipeline is expected to help mitigate price increases in the fuel clause component of consumers' and businesses' power bills by increasing accessibility to natural gas supplies; and

WHEREAS, the pipeline's new supply of natural gas will serve as a powerful engine to drive economic development and job growth by helping eastern North Carolina and the state as a whole attract energy-dependent businesses and industries, many of which do not presently find it economically feasible to locate a business in North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, the pipeline will generate new tax revenues for local governments;

WHEREAS, the pipeline will promote American industrialization and prosperity while reducing our dependence on foreign energy; and

WHEREAS, the pipeline's capacity is expandable, which will allow increased supply as determined by market demand.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED that the Board of Commissioners of the County of Sampson fully supports the Atlantic Coast Pipeline.

ADOPTED this 6th of October, 2014.

Ronald,

You are correct, SHP will handle all the paperwork for the grant. We'll also purchase all the equipment and install it in the mobile tower. Like you said, Sampson county will be a grant sponsor on paper.

Thank you,

Ms. Luter,

I received the MOU today reference the VIPER equipment, I have a meeting scheduled for Thursday with the county manager to discuss this, he may elect to seek approval from our Board of Commissioners. Just a couple of items I need clarification on, am I correct that Sampson County has no financial obligation for the grant? The NCSHP will be responsible for all of the work including paperwork for the project? Where is the equipment located? In short Sampson County is only sponsoring the grant on paper for DPR 2?

I apologize for all the questions but I want to be sure I totally understand and have all the answers before I proceed.

Thanks, for your help.

Ronald,

Thank you for speaking with me this morning regarding the sponsorship of the grant. The grant amount will be $186,000 used to upgrade some of the equipment in the DPR2 mobile tower. This grant has been designated for the upgrade of the equipment in the mobile tower and cannot be used for anything else. Sampson County's responsibility should you decide to sponsor the grant will be to sign a MOA with the State. NCSHP will have the responsibilities of purchasing the equipment, installation of the equipment and all the reporting and paperwork that comes with the grant. If the County is willing to sponsor the grant, I just need the name and address of the person who will be signing the MOA. I've put in a call to NCEM to find out when I need to get this information to them but for now, the sooner you can provide me the information, the better. I don't have the MOA yet but I would just need to know who is authorized/would be signing the MOA. Should you have further questions, please call or email me.

Thank you,

Who Are We?

Sampson Soil & Water Conservation District (SWCD) is comprised of a board of supervisors, of which three are elected in the general election and two are appointed by the NC Soil & Water Conservation Commission. The MBCI Program's purpose is to test alternative methods to protect rural land from development under an existing military flight path. For the second bid round, the District and NRCS staff assisted in the submission of 98 applications from interested landowners in the county. The District also participated in property site visits on applications from the first bid round.

Soil Health Cotton Cover Crop Initiative

The District partnered with the NC Foundation for Soil and Water and Cotton Inc. on a Soil Health Initiative Project regarding the use of Cover Crops with Cotton. The primary goal of the project was to demonstrate to producers that a diverse mixture of cover crop species can be planted in a timely manner, allowed to grow and accumulate biomass and nitrogen, and then be terminated without using tillage.

The Board of Commissioners should recess to reconvene as the Board of Directors of Water and Sewer District II for consideration of this item.

SUBJECT:	Approval of Amendment to Water Purchase Contract with City of Dunn
DEPARTMENT:	Public Works
PUBLIC HEARING:	No
CONTACT PERSON:	Lee Cannady, Public Works Director
PURPOSE:	To approve amendment to water purchase contract with City of Dunn
ATTACHMENTS:	Proposed Amendment
BACKGROUND:	The proposed amendment to the District's water purchase contract with the City of Dunn establishes a minimum quarterly usage equal to or greater than thirty (30) million gallons, which allows for stability in our water purchase rate.
PRIOR BOARD ACTION:	Original contract executed January 1996
RECOMMENDED ACTION OR MOTION:	Approve water purchase contract amendment

Following consideration of this item, the Board should adjourn as the Board of Directors of Water and Sewer District II and reconvene as the Board of Commissioners.

THIS IS AN AMENDMENT TO THE SIGNED WATER PURCHASE CONTRACT MADE ON THE 4^{TH} DAY OF JANUARY, 1996 BETWEEN THE CITY OF DUNN AND THE SAMPSON COUNTY WATER AND SEWER DISTRICT 2.

The Sampson County Water and Sewer District 2 further agrees that their minimum quarterly usage shall not be less than thirty (30) million gallons, or approximately 333,333 gallons per day. To determine quarterly usage, a quarterly running total shall be calculated using a running three billing cycle period; based on this calculation, total usage during each period shall be equal to or greater than thirty (30) million gallons. Usage calculations shall be tallied using Dunn's monthly water billing cycle, which occurs on or near the 15th (fifteenth) day of each month. Should the quarterly running total fall below the established minimum level, an additional billing equal to the established minimum level less the quarterly running total would be in order.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES REGARING PUBLIC COMMENT

A period reserved for comments from the public on topics not otherwise included on that evening's agenda will be included as an item of business on all agendas of regularly-scheduled Board of Commissioners meetings and shall be deemed the "Public Comment" segment of the agenda. The Public Comment segment of the agenda will be placed at the end of the agenda, following the conclusion of all other open session business.

As with Public Hearings, the Chair (or presiding officer) will determine and announce limits on speakers at the start of the Public Comment period. Generally, each speaker will be allocated five (5) minutes. Speakers may not allocate their time to another speaker. The Chairman (or presiding officer) may, at his discretion, decrease this time allocation, if the number of persons wishing to speak would unduly prolong the meeting.

The Public Comment period shall not exceed a total of thirty (30) minutes unless the Board entertains a successful majority vote to extend this period.

An individual wishing to address the Board during the Public Comment period shall register with the Clerk to the Board prior to the opening of the meeting by signing his or her name, address and a short description of his or her topic on a sign-up sheet stationed in the lobby of the County Auditorium.

If time allows, those who fail to register before the meeting may speak during the Public Comment period. These individuals will speak following those who registered in advance. At this time in the agenda, an individual should raise his or her hand and ask to be recognized by the Board Chair (or presiding officer); and then state his or her name, address and introduce the topic to be addressed.

Items of discussion during the Public Comment segment of the meeting will be only those appropriate to Open Meetings. Closed Meeting topics include, but are not limited to, such subjects as personnel, acquisition of real property, and information protected by the client-attorney privilege. Closed Meeting subjects will not be entertained.

Because subjects of Special and Emergency Meetings are often regulated by General Statutes, there will be no Public Comments segment reserved on agendas of these meetings; however, Special and Emergency Meetings are open for public attendance.

The Public Comments segment of the agenda is intended to provide a forum for the Board of Community to listen to citizens; there shall be no expectation that the Board will answer impromptu questions. However, Board members, through the presiding officer, may ask the speaker questions for clarification purposes. The Board will not take action on an item brought up during the Public Comments segment of the agenda and, when appropriate, items will be referred to the Manager or the proper Department Head.
